Residents shocked after derelict Legion building damaged in 'deliberate' blaze

HONITON residents were left shocked after it was announced that a fire in the empty Royal British Legion building in Dowell Street was believed to be started deliberately.

The derelict building was damaged on the afternoon of Monday, September 19th when fire crews received reports of a blaze at the much-maligned property just after 3pm.

Three fire engines were mobilised from Honiton and Ottery St Mary. On arrival, crews confirmed that the building was well alight and requested the attendance of further help. The fire engine from Sidmouth was then sent as well as the Incident Command Unit and a support appliance from Totnes.

Speaking after the blaze, the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, said: "The council are disappointed to hear of the fire at the Royal British Legion, particularly as it is believed to have been started deliberately. The actions of those who did this are appalling and it is a relief that no one was hurt."

"Many thanks to the firefighters who attended the fire and extinguished the blaze within an hour. I hope that our fire services and the police working together with information from the public are able to bring these arsonists to account in a court of law."

Planning permission was granted for eight new homes on the site two years ago but development has been set back by delays in the legal process.

In December last year a vandal forced his way inside the building, squatted for a number of days and caused major damage before fleeing with hundreds of pounds worth of wartime memorabilia.

Honiton's neighbourhood police team had been

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedial.co.uk

checking on the building regularly and in June of this year PCSO Steve Mingo had urged the public to stay vigilant and report any untoward behaviour.

Local resident and Senior Voice spokesman Tony Simpson said: "This building has been vacant far too long and suffers from illegal entry and vermin. It seems to have rapidly deteriorated and is a fire risk and hazard to the community.

"There are clearly local concerns that a fire could happen again. What if appliances are out on a call? What if there are problems containing it?"

"Several vans have been seen parked up at night including TRIP. These vans could have been destroyed. Should this be allowed to continue? Can any enforcement steps be taken?"

Crews have assessed that 15 per cent of the building was damaged by fire and 30 per cent was damaged by smoke. The majority of the damage was within the building towards the rear of the main hall and the wooden staging.

Chris Sinden, President of the Honiton branch of the Royal British Legion added: "I'm as surprised as everyone else and it is very sad that this has taken place. The branch tries to keep a close eye on the building and it's a shame this has happened a few days before the building was going to be made secure."

A spokesperson for the Royal British Legion added: "We can confirm that a fire damaged some rooms at the rear of the former Royal British Legion site in Dowell Street, Honiton. The building also suffered some smoke damage."

"Lambert Smith Hampton is currently marketing the site. It is a development site, and planning permission for eight units has previously been granted."

"We will update local people in the area as soon as possible."

CHARD will be kicking themselves for allowing their game against Wells slip from their grasp after having a comfortable 16-3 lead at half-time.

For the third game in a row Chard lost by the narrowest of margins and came away with just one losing bonus point because they finished within seven points of the winners.

Chard know they could and should have won the game but player coach Simon Jenkins commented after the game that Wells deserved the win because of their second half display.

They knew how to use the slope to their advantage and were certainly 'up for it' whereas Chard were often going through the motions which left many of their supporters rather disappointed.

Chard had much of the proceedings in the first half when they had the advantage of the slope even though Wells had taken the lead with an early penalty.

A try from Jenkins plus a conversion and three penalties from the boot of fly half Humphries gave the visitors a comfortable lead and in truth if Chard had scored any further points in the first half then surely Wells would have had too big a mountain to climb.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER Pupils over-aided in SATs exams

THE controversial SATs results at Axminster Primary Academy (formerly school) will never be revealed.

After more than two months since concerns over the results were first raised, the Standards and Testing Agency (STA) has announced that "pupils were over-aided" during the exam and there is also doubt about the integrity of some papers. As a result, the school has launched a full internal investigation.

Axminster Primary Academy, which is part of the Acorn Multi Academy Trust, released a statement on Friday, September 25th, apologising to pupils for failing "to correctly administer" the SATs.

A spokesperson said: "Axminster Primary School's former Year 6 SATs results will be annulled after an investigation found that pupils had received too much help during the exam."

STA deputy director Amanda-Jane Balfour has told the school: "I am satisfied that based on these findings, pupils were over-aided during the administration of national curriculum tests."

"This was not confined to just the pupils whom you have confirmed had support from a prompter during the tests."

"Additionally, there is doubt about the integrity of the mental maths papers as there is evidence that some changes may have been made to pupils' answers after the tests were completed."

The chairman of the school governors, Jane Rockett, has written to parents of the former Year 6 students, acknowledging the hard work by pupils towards their SATs, and expressing her disappointment and apologies after the STA findings.

From the editor's chair Is the town hall coming home?

SEATON Town Hall - known also as The Gateway - has long been the social centre of Seaton, especially since Seaton's Voice took over the entertainment organisation.

It also houses the town's excellent museum and provides office space and a meeting room for Seaton Town Council.

The building is currently owned by East Devon District Council and talks have been going on for two years in the hope it could be handed back to Seaton at no cost. On the face of it that would seem a good deal.

If the town decides to take it on, Seaton Town Council will abandon its plans to find new office accommodation.

Three options are on the table: 1 - Not take it on; 2 - take it on and don't spend any money on refurbishment; and 3 - take it on and refurbish the building at an estimated cost of more than £600,000 which include a sum of £60,000 for extending the building.

This money would be raised through the town council taking out a public works loan of £405,000 with East Devon contributing £25,000 and Seaton's Voice £180,000.

This is a great deal of money for a small community and there are some who fear it could cripple the town.

Others believe that Seaton needs a modern community centre and should follow other towns in East Devon in taking on such an ambitious project.

The outcome will be iterating and a referendum is likely to generate a great deal of discussion before the town goes to the polls. But referendums don't always settle matters for good - look what happened in Honiton with the Beehive community centre.

It is unlikely that in these days of austerity EDDC will bring the town hall up to the standard required. This is a big call for Seaton.

OTTERY ST MARY Council objects to 'inappropriate' plans

OTTERY St Mary Town Council has once again unanimously opposed "inappropriately located" plans for 53 new homes in the area.

The council has set a precedent that developers wanting to build in Ottery St Mary should look to the west of the historic town rather than continuing proposals in areas to the south, such as Sidmouth Road, and to the east like Slade Road.

Chairman of the Planning Committee Councillor Ian Holmes said the application for 53 homes on the land east of Sidmouth Road had nothing to merit it.

"The location is totally inappropriate on the wrong side of the town with very poor access, it's totally unsustainable," he said.

"Ottery has had more than its allocation of housing, resulting in traffic congestion and overloading of the infrastructure."

HONITON RBL building damaged after 'deliberate' blaze

HONITON residents were left shocked after it was announced that a fire in the empty Royal British Legion building in Dowell Street was believed to be started deliberately.

The derelict building was damaged on the afternoon of Monday, September 19th when fire crews received reports of a blaze at the much-maligned property just after 3pm.

Three fire engines were mobilised from Honiton and Ottery St Mary. On arrival, crews confirmed that the building was well alight and requested the attendance of further help. The fire engine from Sidmouth was then sent as well as the Incident Command Unit and a support appliance from Totnes.

Speaking after the blaze, the Mayor of Honiton, Councillor Caroline Kolek, said: "The council are disappointed to hear of the fire at the Royal British Legion, particularly as it is believed to have been started deliberately. The actions of those who did this are appalling and it is a relief that no one was hurt."

SEATON & BEER Public will decide future of Town Hall

SEATON residents will be given three options when deciding the future of the town hall.

The three options were agreed during a meeting of the full council on Monday, September 21st. Current owner East Devon District Council (EDDC) wants to transfer the building to Seaton Town Council at no cost to the latter. EDDC, Seaton Town Council, community group Seaton's Voice, which currently leases and manages the building, and co-tenants Seaton Museum have worked together on the plan for about two years.

If the transfer is agreed, Seaton's Voice and the museum would become the tenants of the town council. The final decision, though, will be made by the people of Seaton through consultation and referendum.

Details for this process are being finalised, and more information is expected in the near future.

But Mayor of Seaton, Councillor Tony Woodman, summed up by saying: "There will be three options - not take it on, take it on and do nothing, and take it on and undertake the necessary improvements like installing a lift, new toilets etc, which we will need a Public Works Loan Board loan."

SOUTH SOMERSET Plans for county to cut down on landfill

SOMERSET Waste Partnership (SWP) has issued a Europe-wide tender to find an alternative to landfill for Somerset.

The aim is to end almost all use of landfill in Somerset and reduce the present £12million a year cost of rubbish disposal through burial.

SWP's governing Somerset Waste Board (SWB) of councillors from all six Somerset local authorities approved a progress report and gave the go ahead to issue a Europe-wide tender to find a company to provide an alternative to landfill for Somerset.

The latest stage also involved seeking two sites for waste transfer stations, one to serve broadly the east of the county and one to serve the west, where domestic rubbish can be bulked up for transport out of county for treatment or turning into fuel for export or UK use.

A spokesperson for SWP said: "The options were whittled down from more than 60 possible sites to a shortlist of 10 for the west and seven to serve the east. The search has homed-in to two preferred options, and one fall-back, on the basis of availability, size, position, risk of congestion, likelihood of gaining planning and permitting consent, and costs."

"Bidders will not be obliged to use the two preferred sites but they will be available for any bidder who does not have any alternatives."

Danish Prime Minister backs East Devon military charity

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedial.co.uk

CELEBRITIES Brad Pitt, Tom Hardy and now the Prime Minister of Denmark are all among supporters of a far-reaching East Devon military charity, The Baton.

The Danish Prime Minister Lars Løkke Rasmussen pledged his allegiance to the charity, founded by Honiton barber Alan Rowe MBE, at the inaugural Denmark Baton Run that consisted of a 75-mile route from Slagelse ending at the citadel in Copenhagen on Danish Flag Day.

Mr Rasmussen and Defence Minister Carl Holst ran the last seven kilometres and were so moved by the occasion that they promised to secure the event as an annual and more prominent fixture of the civic calendar.

Wherever it travels, The Baton – a Medical Emergency Response Team (MERT) stretcher handle used to carry wounded allied soldiers at Afghanistan's Camp Bastion – attracts contemplation and respect for members of the armed forces and their families through the Message of Conscience contained within it.

To raise awareness of The Baton – which symbolises pride, hope, courage and suffering, but also gratitude for the armed forces – Mr Rowe has been hosting an annual, 110-mile Baton Run from RAF Brize Norton to the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire involving a team running in relay throughout the night.

A Baton has been based in America for two years as well and there are plans for one to be stationed in Australia, and a Baton is now based permanently in Denmark with custodian, former member of the Reconnaissance (Gardermusar) Regiment, Corporal Kim Thygesen, who organised this month's event.

Mr Rowe said that after coming over and running the Baton Run with him in the UK this June, Corporal Thygesen wanted to do something to up the profile of the Danish forces in his own country.

"He was very moved by the event," said Mr Rowe.

"The Danish punch well above their weight with their military and served alongside us in many conflicts, including Iraq, Afghanistan, Kosovo and Croatia. Often people aren't always aware of this.

"Our Danish allies don't enjoy the amount of support as there is for our own forces here in the UK. I thought it would be really good for us to show support for our allies who we have fought shoulder to shoulder with, and for their families who all suffer the same emotions, by giving them something with which to raise awareness with - The Baton is a tool to do this."

Ahead of the Denmark Baton Run, Corporal Thygesen arranged to run between two memorials on the island of Bornholm, where the garrison for the Guard Hussar Regiment is based. The local mayor asked to run with him and when he approached the Commanding Officer of the regiment to invite "a couple" of serving soldiers and veterans along, 250 turned out.

"Everyone connected with The Baton family - is so very proud that a small, British charity with its roots in East Devon has had this much effect," added Mr Rowe, who described the participation of Denmark's highest statesman as "an honour".

"And I'm proud that we are supporting not only our forces and their families here in the UK, but also our allies elsewhere."

Since The Baton was founded in 2009, one Baton has become six, all made from MERT stretchers, and groups and individuals the world over have taken it on various expeditions, big and small, from Mount Everest to the North and South Poles, to spread its message.

Thousands of pounds have been generated for military charities including Soldiers, Sailors, Air-men and Families Association (SSAFA), for which Mr Rowe is the Devon vice-president in recognition of his work with The Baton. Funds raised through the Baton stays in the country that raised it.

The Baton is now under the control and supervision of Royal Marine PTI Sgt Robbie Garthland for the Curahee 9 Mile Speed March on Sunday, October 4th. The march will begin at the Honiton war memorial.

Mayor opens new-look scout hut

HONITON Mayor Caroline Kolek officially reopened the scout hall in Honiton after a major refurbishment took place over the summer.

Several broken window panes, two pieces of fascia board, slates on the roof, as well as cleaning out and replacing guttering were all attended to by local tradesmen. The main doors of the building on Dowell Street were also given a fresh coat of paint.

Helen Turner from the 1st Honiton Scout Group said: "Inside the building we have had it painted from top to bottom. The colour scheme has been changed completely. The hall floor upstairs has also had a coat of varnish. We have had non-slip flooring put down in the foyer and into the toilet block, where before there had only been concrete. All the notice boards have been given a new coat of paint and borders put around them."

The work began at the start of May and was finished at the end of August. Since then, the group leaders have been extremely busy in putting the hut's belongings back where they should be and sorting out all of their equipment.

"We have spent a lot of money on this makeover for the hall but it is really worth it," Mrs Turner added.

"We have been fundraising over the past few years, plus our members pay subs and we also claim gift aid, which has helped to pay for the work."

The 1st Honiton Scout Group would also like to thank Graham, Sue and Eric Smith, Glass Honiton, Andrew Pearsall, Darren Bland - D J Elex, Pete Bonnetta, Honiton Carpets, SOS Scaffolding, Val Sheen - Top To Bottom, Mark Fisher - B & L Construction, Martin Ayres and Gordon Legg - East Devon Garage for all their help with the project.

'Inspirational' man fought challenges for good causes and his community

AN East Devon man, who met head on challenges for good causes and the welfare of his community, has lost his battle for life after fighting cancer with great courage for four years.

Final tributes to the inspirational John Massen, 45, of Axminster, will take place at his funeral service in St Gregory's Church, Seaton, on October 6th at 1pm.

John came to live in Seaton with his parents at the age of three and was educated at local schools.

He was a member of the local St John Ambulance for several years before leaving due to other commitments and studies at East Devon College.

On leaving, he worked as a pharmacy technician at Vantage Chemists, Seaton, and at Colyton Pharmacy.

Two injured in A35 crash

TWO people were injured in a late morning crash on the A35 between Hunters Lodge and Charmouth on Sunday, September 27th.

Paramedics were alerted at 11.10am, and a spokesperson said two vehicles, one towing a caravan, were involved.

The injuries were not thought to be serious, according to the ambulance service. The A35 was closed in both directions as police dealt with the incident and resulting traffic caused chaos in nearby Lyme Regis, where one of the main roads was also closed for property repairs.

OBITUARY: John Massen

macy.

In 1991 he joined Devon and Cornwall Special Constabulary, quickly making his mark, receiving accolades from divisional commanders and a commendation for his part in the arrest of three individuals caught stealing marine equipment at Lyme Regis.

John, whose service spanned 24 years, reached the rank of Special Chief Inspector, responsible for all the special constables in East Devon.

In all, he completed 11,500 hours of unpaid police work, equating to 40 hours a month.

He had many interests, including running, being an original member of the Axe Vale Club. He competed in two London Marathons and 40 half marathons, enhancing his reputation as a prolific charity fund raiser.

This was highlighted in his participation in a 430 mile walk around the South West Coastal Path which raised £19,000 for CLIC.

More recently, the John O'Groats to Land's End bike ride was completed in his name – an event which brought in over £30,000 for local cancer charities.

John, who leaves a widow, Nina, spent his latter working years as IT manager for Harris Fowler Solicitors, in Taunton.

Andy Turner, a great friend of John for over 30 years, said this week: "It was heart breaking to find out he had cancer. Throughout his battle with the disease, he demonstrated he was no push over, and he fought it like no other.

"One of his oncology consultants told me he had never met any other so determined and committed to fighting the illness.

"He was friendly, caring and compassionate. He touched the lives of everyone he met. Everyone will remember him for his smile and steely determination."

CHALLENGE ROB

A weekly column throughout October

Trying out everything
B! HEALTH & FITNESS
has to offer!

Over the course of October I will be taking on a challenge to experience everything that Lyme Regis' new health club, B! Health & Fitness, has to offer and I will be sharing my experiences in this column throughout the month.

By day I work in advertising here at the View From and spend most of the day sat at a desk. I used to be very active but a tear to the ACL in my right knee put pay to my football playing days and, if I'm honest, now I've hit my thirties laziness has kicked in with my only real form of exercise being the walk to and from work (which does involve a very steep hill, I might add!) and playing golf once or twice a week. I lead a busy life as I am also a photographer and spend a great deal of my time taking and in particular editing photos. The free time I get tends to be spent with family or on the golf course.

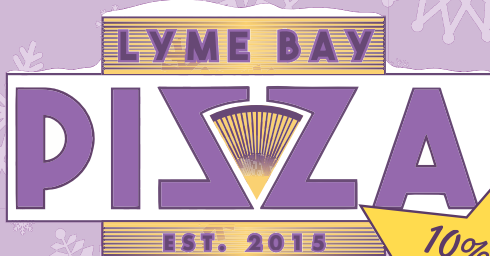

I do consider myself as healthy, I have a balanced diet and eat well through the week but I do tend to indulge at the weekends and enjoy a pint or two at the pub when the rugby is on.

I'm looking forward to making the time to visit the gym and seeing everything they have to offer, and hopefully it will energise me to become more active again!

I've been speaking to Duncan at B! Health & Fitness who has put a plan together for me that fits around my busy lifestyle. I start with an induction to the gym with a basic fitness test across a few strength and cardio exercises followed by a few general gym sessions in the first week, working on different parts of the body each time. In the second week I will progress to some gym sessions more specific to my golf game, which I'm really excited about! In the third week I will be trying out four personal training sessions and in the fourth week I will be getting a taster for three different fitness classes, before finishing the month with a final full body personal training session. I will then be a re-assessed on the same strength and cardio exercises I did to start the month to see what improvement I've made. I can't wait to get stuck in!

Honiton Primary staff to help support other schools

THE headteacher and staff at Honiton Primary have been selected for a top role supporting schools in challenging circumstances.

Andrea Brown is one of 70 headteachers to be appointed to the role of National Leader of Education (NLE) in the latest recruitment round.

NLEs, along with staff in their school - designated a National Support School - use their success and professionalism to provide additional leadership capability in other schools.

NLEs are deployed to suit the needs of each school requiring support, or to those in transition to federation or academy status. The type of support provided is flexible and can often involve NLEs becoming executive headteacher. They also have responsibility for bringing on the next generation of NLEs and National Support Schools.

Mrs Brown said: "The staff, governors and pupils worked hard at Honiton Primary School to achieve its outstanding status. We feel privileged to share our expertise with other schools, to help them on their journey towards becoming good and ultimately outstanding.

by Peter Hodges

"As a school we are committed to helping as many schools as possible provide outstanding education to their pupils."

Many NLEs and National Support Schools report improved exam results at the schools they support, as well as their own.

Charlie Taylor, chief executive of the National College for Teaching and Leadership, said: "It's great that heads like Mrs Brown are willing to look beyond their own school gates to help more and more pupils achieve."

"We now have well over 1,000 National Leaders of Education and their efforts are at the heart of a self-improving, school-led education system."

"School-to-school support is having a growing impact with benefits for both the schools being supported and those providing the support."

Successful heads will be invited to attend a formal induction and training event in October for the role in driving school improvement.

■ Trekker: Morgan Davy receiving a donation for £250 from Honiton Lions President Steve Guilbert after the completion of her 203 mile trek along the Cornwall and Devon coastal path

HONITON and District Lions have donated £250 to a local fundraiser following the completion of yet another sporting challenge.

Morgan Davy's exploits have seen her compete in the Ten Tors and Duke of Edinburgh awards and Morgan set herself another fundraising challenge by completing the 203-mile coastal walk from Penzance to Brixham, all in aid of Teenage Cancer Trust. She managed to cover the miles in 10 days being joined for some of the journey by her dog Pyper and one of her friends.

Honiton Lions president Steve Guilbert praised Morgan by saying: "If only we had more Morgan Davys who would inspire other teenagers to raise funds in their local community."

At the suggestion of her Ten Tors coach, Morgan wore a Teenage Cancer Trust sign on her backpack and this prompted quite a few donations and gained her a lot of support from the public. She received an overwhelming amount of backing from the local community, friends and family and managed to far exceed her goal of £1,000 for a charity she wholeheartedly supports.

Morgan hopes to continue her charity work in the future to raise more money for other deserving organisations.

Fly tipping and other 'unsavoury activity' at estate car park

STAFF at Combe Estate were faced with the task of cleaning up, after someone had tipped a variety of garden, domestic and other 'disgusting' waste at a car park provided by the Estate.

Beech Walk woods is an area of private Combe Estate land where public access is permitted, on a voluntary basis, for local people to walk and generally enjoy the countryside. The Estate has also provided a car park for walkers to use.

Estate Manager Justin Lascelles said: "The Estate is very happy to provide a car park for people to use when enjoying Beech Walk woods. This is something that we provide voluntarily as part of our commitment to enabling the public to enjoy the countryside. It is immensely disappointing to discover that a number of individuals have been using the car park to dump rubbish and garden waste without any regard to other users and the countryside in general."

Fly tipping is a serious problem in the countryside and it is the landowner that ends up bearing the cost of clearing up and disposing of the rubbish.

"It costs us time and money to deal with clearing up after people and quite frankly its something we should not have to do," said Mr Lascelles. "We have to take the rubbish to the council tip and, as we are a business, we have to then pay to get rid of it. When this comes from a site which we provide free of charge and without obligation for members of the public to enjoy it is quite galling."

"It astounds me that if someone has made the effort to load up their car, why they then don't simply take it to the tip?"

Combe Estate are urging local residents to be vigilant and if they spot someone dumping rubbish in the countryside that they take their registration details and inform the landowner, if known, or the local authority. Also, make the tipper aware that they have been spotted, as it may deter them.

Details of names and addresses have been obtained from the rubbish and reported to the local authorities, so there may be a few people that can expect a knock at the door in the coming weeks.

There is also evidence of some other unsavoury activity going on at the car park and measures are being taken to try to identify those involved.

Mr Lascelles added finally: "We would ask everyone to take responsibility for disposing of their rubbish. The countryside is not a bin and if the problem continues then we may have to re-evaluate whether we make our land available for access which would be very sad for all concerned."

Trekking with Bearhouse Alpacas

BEARHOUSE Alpacas of Sidbury took alpacas and alpaca products to the Branscombe Fair last Saturday for the afternoon's festivities, which included morris dancers, singers, musicians and martial arts, along with head shaving of several locals to raise money for Cancer Research UK.

As usual, the alpacas drew a lot of attention and many people took leaflets advertising Alpaca Trekking, which has become a very popular spin-off of the Bearhouse Alpacas business.

Treks of approximately two hours, tailored to suit individual requirements, are run from the farm in the beautiful Roncombe Valley and follow the bridleways around the farm, situated in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Bearhouse have been breeding alpacas since 2006 and last year saw the farm's first exports to Italy, Holland and Belgium.

Alpacas produce one of the most desirable natural fibres in the world as their fleeces are exceptionally fine, light, soft and extremely warm. Bearhouse Farm sell a beautiful range of alpaca socks and have their alpaca fibre spun into wool in several colours as well as producing alpaca felt which is made into shoe/boot insoles.

Bearhouse Alpacas love showing off their herd. If you would like to book an alpaca trek and see the herd including this summer's cria, phone 01395 597693 for more information or visit www.bearhousealpacas.co.uk

All change for village news

IT is all change on the news front in the village this week with Beer Village Stores taking on the sales of newspapers.

The daily papers and your weekly Pulman's View From, will now be available in the shop at the top of Fore Street after the decision by the owners of Beer News to close down that part of their operation.

"Newspapers will be on sale at Beer Village Stores but the magazines will still be on sale here as they don't have room for them in their shop," said Julia Parker, who owns Beer News.

"The Lottery will also still be here for a while until they get themselves sorted out.

"In future we will be concentrating on magazines, cards, stationery, maps and some gifts. It will be better for them and we can concentrate on what we do best.

Roy and Cathy Lawless run the Village Stores and said they were delighted to have been given the opportunity to take on selling newspapers and, eventually, the National Lottery.

"We were keen to take on the newspapers because even though it will be extra work for us we are keen to support the village," said Mr Lawless.

"It is exciting for us but there is also some trepidation as we don't want to let down anyone so we will welcome any feedback from our customers."

The Beer Village Stores will now open from 7am to cater for their new customers.

Beer in Bloom moves up a gear

by Kevin Fahey

BEER has been invited to take part in the 2016 National Royal Horticultural Society (RHS) competition after wowing the judges at the South West Awards.

The seaside village won the Britain in Bloom Plantscape Coastal Trophy and was awarded four certificates for the displays outside St Michael's Church, the Jubilee Gardens, the War Memorial and the play park on Jubilee Gardens.

In addition the gardens at Pecorama were awarded the Bradford Rose Bowl for the best non-municipal horticultural display.

"It was an amazing event and I nearly passed out when it was announced we had won the Coastal Trophy," said Ursula Makepeace, who is the President of the Beer Horticultural Society.

She added: "When I arrived in Dartmouth I was given a very warm welcome so I sensed we might get a good result but I had no idea that it would be this good.

"A fantastic achievement for the village and better than we could have ever anticipated.

"All the hard work is coming to fruition."

Mrs Makepeace, who was presented with the trophies by author and political commentator Jonathan Dimbleby, said the chairman of the South West in Bloom competition, Jon Wheatley, suggested it was time Beer moved onto the national stage.

"We have been invited to take part in the nationals and Jon Wheatley insisted that he wants to mentor us and will come to Beer to help us," added Mrs Makepeace.

"We must first enter the south west event again as a dress rehearsal and then the national judges from the RHS will come down to see us in August.

"It is a wonderful opportunity and I would like to see more people get involved in making Beer look beautiful because surely that must also help attract more visitors to the village. We won four certificates this year and next year I want us to win ten."

Last year Beer won the Gold Award and the Cox Cup in the seaside village section of the South west competition. Awards - Plantscape Coastal Trophy: Beer; Champion of Champions: Gold Flag; Bradford Rose Bowl for the best non-municipal horticultural display: Pecorama Gardens. Outstanding Awards: Grounds outside St Michael's Church and the Jubilee Gardening team; Improving Award: The War Memorial; Establishing Award: Beer Play Park Enthusiasts.

Spitfire girl turns 100

SEATON resident Elsie Williams invited friends and family to her house for a celebration of her centenary on September 15th.

She has lived just over a quarter of her life in Seaton, having moved to the town in 1990.

Londoner Elsie grew up in Paddington and then lived in Hammersmith.

An accountant by profession, she spent her working life in the capital and didn't retire until the age of 69.

During World War II she was in charge of drawings and specifications for the Spitfire for the Ministry of Defence.

Elsie's late husband Lyndhurst was a development engineer.

When retired, both wanted to leave London, and they ended up in Seaton.

Unlike many other people who move to the town, Elsie and Lyndhurst had never holidayed in Seaton.

She said: "We just decided we wanted to move out of London, but we had no particular place in mind."

"We drove and stopped along the way, including Beer and Seaton, which is how we found the house."

Seaton mayor Tony Woodman at-

Beach clean

MORE than 3,000 items were collected during the Seaton beach clean on Sunday, September 20th, totalling a weight of 41Kg.

The Seaton event was organised by Axe Vale & District Conservation Society as part of the Marine Conservation Society (MCS) Beachwatch Big Weekend.

Organiser Ian Waite, on behalf of Axe Vale & District Conservation Society, said: "Once again plastic pieces were the main find."

"Over 800 items relating to food and drink was an increase on last year and also more anglers' fishing line and tackle were recorded."

"It is disappointing to report 27 finds of dog faeces, another increase on last year."

The statistics will be passed on to MCS and become part of a national report.

All the fun of the Medieval fayre!

■ TRADITIONAL DRESS: Residents dressed in Medieval costume for a parade through the village

RESIDENTS and visitors turned out in force to take part in Colyford's traditional Goose Fayre on Saturday.

The Goose Fayre is held annually on the closest Saturday to Michaelmas to mark the granting of a seven day fair in the village by King John to Thomas Bassett and his heirs in 1207. Thomas Bassett later founded Colyford in 1225. He was also present when King John signed the Magna Carta, the 800th anniversary of which has been celebrated this year, and a copy of the historic document was on display at Saturday's fayre.

Events started with a well-supported Medieval parade through the village, followed by the official opening of the fayre by the Mayor of Colyford, Howard West, and the ceremonial tasting of the fayre ale by John Mills.

As well as a plethora of stalls and games, attractions included archery, falconry, a quintain ride for children, Punch & Judy, ferret racing, morris dancing, Medieval dancing and a mummings play, finishing with the mock auction of geese.

■ COMMUNITY EVENT: Residents young and old took part in the events

Performance cars at Kilmington

ABOUT £20 million-worth of high performance cars were on display at Cranberries Luxury Hide-away in Kilmington when members of the international Sport Quattro Club gathered for their annual meeting, writes Anders Larsson.

Formed in 1991, the Germany-based club is for owners of Audi Type 859 Sport Quattro and original Works Rally Quattro.

Although based in Germany, the club came about when the three founding members met during Audi winter driving training in Finland - and the first meeting took place in France.

Axminster resident Iain Chubb is a member of the club, and may have had something to do with club bosses deciding to hold this year's annual meeting in East Devon.

Cranberries owner Steven Littley looked after members from the UK, Austria, Switzerland, Germany and Holland during their five-day stay.

He said: "They brought about £20 million worth of cars. One car once belonged to Jurgen Klinsmann."

He also said that, apart from attending to club business, the members took their cars on various outings, including a spin on Dartmoor.

Alarms for seniors

■ I RECENTLY went to visit a 95-year-old gentleman who, the night before, had fallen heavily in his upstairs bedroom.

Living alone, he then spent 20 minutes crawling painfully down the stairs in order to reach a phone to summon help.

During our conversation he pointed to the small personal alarm, which I wear permanently on my wrist.

I, too, live alone, and remotely, so that no amount of my shouting would be heard by anyone.

"What's that,?" he enquired? I told him that it was a device which would have paid for itself many times over after his fall - if only he had a similar button to press; to summon paramedics to come to his aid.

But he had not even heard of these so-called 'Panic' buttons! His GP, the practice nurse, and other surgery staff, plus other people who are meant to look after the welfare of the elderly, had not even told him that such alarms exist.

The mind boggles that such vulnerable folk are just left to get on with life - before they finally fall over.

Admittedly a range of organisations who can supply these emergency alarm systems advertise in the national press - but how many old people would necessarily read them?

Is it not about time that the medical fraternity knew more about the problems faced by the likes of my ancient friend; and made them aware of the various aids that are now available to help them?

Indeed, surgery staff should know of the living conditions of their older patients. Ask them! This is not prying - its gaining information on what aids might be of help to them - even a couple of extra handles on stairs can make a world of difference.

Prayers answered in finding lost book

■ AT the end of August on the way to church I lost my prayer book.

I searched high and low for it without success and had given up hope of finding it again.

The day before I was due to move out of the area I read an article in the View From Axminster (22nd September).

It related how Mr Dennis Dale had found a prayer book similar to mine and had made several unsuccessful attempts to find the owner.

A quick phone call to the number given established that it was indeed mine and I was soon reunited with it.

As Mr Dale surmised, the book contained items of sentimental value and through your paper I wish to reiterate my thanks to him for all the trouble he went to in trying to return it.

Not many people would have contacted the local churches, police and newspapers on behalf of a total stranger.

Thanks again Mr Dale.

Honiton Art Society

HONITON Art Society's 51st Annual Exhibition ended last Saturday after a rather quiet ten days. There were a few less exhibits than last year but there were some good sales and the quality of the work on show was of a high standard. Entries from some talented new members were much admired by visitors. The public's choice for favourite painting went to Wyn Appleford for her oil 'The Walrus, Exe Estuary'. The preview evening raffle prize, a watercolour by Terry Harrison, was won by Tricia Gent.

The next meeting of the society is on Monday, October 12th, 2 to 4pm. Awliscombe Village Hall, when there will be a demonstration by Charles Evans, Seascape in Oils. Visitors are very welcome, entrance fee £2. New members are always very welcome to the society.

Axminster Catenians

At a recent meeting at the Lordleaze Hotel, the international Grand President of the Catenian Association presented Paul Austin of Axminster Catenians with his Scroll for 50 years' membership (see picture above). Paul is currently Axminster's Treasurer.

Sidmouth flowers

BACK after the summer break on September 15th, Pam Lewis was welcomed as Demonstrator, producing 'Autumn Opulence'. Pam took over from Rosemary Bullard, who sadly died about two months ago, and she had come hot foot from Salisbury Cathedral Flower Festival where she is one of the main organisers.

Next month is the AGM with a speaker rather than a demonstration and in November the club is preparing for Christmas.

Colyford & District Flower Club

THE September meeting was held on Tuesday 1st in Colyford Memorial Hall.

Sue Neale from Ilfracombe was welcomed back, accompanied by her husband who played the organ.

Her title was 'Carousel' and her first demo depicted Ascot on a colourful hat box. Stuart played and Sue sang 'The Ascot Cabot'. The next arrangement was 'Emerald Isle'.

Another big occasion in the flower calendar is Chelsea. Sue used a big urn-shaped container and Stuart gave a tune called 'English Country Garden'.

A wedding bouquet was next and the final one was 'Carnival Time in Rio'. A tall vase was filled with clashing colours and finished off with two large blue feathers making a spectacular finish to a lovely afternoon.

A vote of thanks was given by Jean Underdown.

Competition results this month were: Intermediate – 1st Christine Perry, 2nd Carol Hubbard, 3rd Penny Grant; Advanced – 1st Sheila Clare, 2nd Angie Clark, 3rd Lindi Richards.

Eight visitors attended the meeting, which finished with tea and cake.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, 6th October at 2.15pm in Colyford Hall. The title of the demonstration is 'Burnished Beauty' and the competition, for anyone who would like to enter, is 'Autumn Glory'. Anyone can come along and enjoy a restful afternoon of flowers.

AXE RIVER

AXE River Members celebrated 100 years of the WI in style with a chocolate iced birthday cake adorned with a river and champagne bottles for candles.

Mrs Pam Davies spoke about the history of the Dorset Button before setting members the task of making their own.

The club has a very busy and varied programme and recently visited Complete Meats and made their own sausages. Plans are now underway to celebrate the branch's second birthday.

The next meeting is on Tuesday, 13th October 2015, 7.30-9.30pm at the Methodist Church Hall, Lyme Road, Axminster. A demonstration of flower arranging will be given by Sarah from Cloud9 Florist and the competition is an Autumn Poem composed by individual members.

If you would like to come along to a meeting or want some more information, please contact President Ann Keane on 01297 598953.

BEER

ACTIVITIES are starting to resume after the summer break and the first social get-together was lunch at Beer Head Bistro.

The first meeting on 2nd September welcomed Peter Dare, Master Mason. Peter gave an insight into his transition from Beer schoolboy to achieving the Australia Medal, awarded by The Queen, for his work on Brisbane Cathedral. Nearer to home he has worked on many fine, historic buildings in Oxford and London and Exeter Cathedral where, though now retired, he still maintains an interest in an advisory capacity.

Planning also commenced for forthcoming events. In October the branch hosts the Seaton group of WIs' autumn meeting and holds another Tombola stall at the craft fair on the 18th.

The next meeting is on 7th October. Guests will receive a very warm welcome.

Axminster Probus

DIANE Dean, in her talk at September's meeting on her role as a magistrate, touched on many aspects of her life as a magistrate and gave some amusing examples of actual cases – including a case where the well-dressed defendant was actually wearing a stolen suit!

Over her ten years in the position there have been many changes to the system; it is now much more centralised. Tablet computers take the place of weighty guidance manuals and evidence is increasingly given by CCTV. Although the whole system has much to commend it Diane is at pains to admit that it needs further fine tuning.

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the A35 Pit Stop, Gammons Hill, Kilmington on the first Tuesday of each month. Prospective members are always welcome. For further information ring 01460 220528.

Seaton Probus

THE new season of Seaton Men's Probus Club begins on October 7th with a talk by Francis Burroughs entitled 'Wonderful World of Glass'. Meetings take place on Wednesday mornings at 10.00 a.m. in St. Gregory's Hall, Colyford Road, Seaton.

Stephen Lord is the new membership secretary. He will be most interested to hear from any prospective new members and can be contacted on 01297 21872.

Probus is a national association of clubs for retired or semi-retired people to meet others and share interests. The activities are free of ritual or religious connections and consist of a programme of visiting speakers, presentations by members on their own speciality and convivial gatherings to share food and drink.

Newcomers are invited to sample any three meetings of their choice before pressing the 'Like' button!

CHARD CARNIVAL

SATURDAY 3RD OCTOBER - CHILDREN'S DAYTIME PROCESSION

SATURDAY 10TH OCTOBER - MAIN CARNIVAL PROCESSION

Raising money for local charities and organisations

IN 1967, representatives from the League of Friends and Chard Youth Centre met to discuss ways in which to raise money for the respected groups. Gerald Quick, Mervyn Ball, Tom Miller and Wendy Clulow decided that the best option would be to revive Chard Carnival, after a break of 13 years. The carnival is now in its 48th year and has raised over £100,000 for local charities and organisations, including Chard Christmas Lights, Children's Hospice South West, Chard Hospital and all the local schools. In the early 1970's, Chard, Ilminster, Wellington and Taunton formed the South Somerset Federation of Carnivals, with Yeovil joining at a later date. This provided a competition for the best entries from the 5 towns taking part. Yeovil Carnival has since ceased to exist, but the federation of 4 towns remains.

Chard Carnival committee is made up of 15 volunteers, who work tirelessly all year round to put the carnival on. Fundraising events are held throughout the year, to raise the £6000 it costs to run the carnival. This, hopefully, leaves all the money collected on the night to go to our chosen charities and organisations. We are always looking for more volunteers and helpers, if you are interested, pop into Chard

Garden Centre for more details!

Or contact our Chairman Andy Chant 01460 66614

Email andrewchant672@btinternet.com

This year, Community groups who would like funding from the money raised at the Chard Carnival 2015

Are being urged to get in touch with committee members.

Andrew Chant, Chairman of the carnival committee. Said £3,500 was raised from last year's.

What the committee wants this years Carnival money to do is support LOCAL charities, groups and carnival clubs. In Chard and surrounding village's local to Chard.

So please let us know if you want your group, charity and Carnival clubs, to be considered to get some of the money raised at this years carnival

Chard Carnival committee would like to thank PRS for Music who have sponsored half of our license fees. PRS for Music licences the use of copyright music across the UK, giving businesses and organisations the legal permission they need to play the music they want.

National Home Security Month

October 2015

National Home Security Month is back to battle break-ins

AFTER the success of previous years, National Home Security Month (NHSM) is set to return this October with even more top tips for keeping families, homes and belongings secure.

The initiative is sponsored by security specialist Yale and urges Brits to consider the way they keep their possessions safe by creating awareness around the importance of home security.

Research suggests that burglaries and vandalism increase during the autumn and winter months, with a 5% increase in household thefts during the week the clocks go back. Halloween alone sees a huge 160% increase and Bonfire Night is statistically the worst day of the year for burglaries*. As a result, there is no better time to invest in home security and NHSM is designed to help you do just that.

Running throughout October, the campaign will highlight a different element of home security each week, with the first week introducing NHSM and providing simple tips and advice on how to protect your home and belongings.

Week two will focus on door and window security, making sure you are aware of the best way to secure the entry points to your home and explaining the various British Standards that apply to door locks.

Whichever possessions you value the most, protecting items both inside and outside of the home is the theme for weeks three and four respectively. With statistics showing that the average cost of a burglary is £2,300, the advice in these weeks will help prevent you paying out by looking at measures to protect belongings inside the home, as well as advice on ensuring sheds and outbuildings are not easy targets as the nights get darker.

The final week rockets you into the future of home security. With the evolution of smart security and a recent survey by Yale revealing the 'connected home' is about to take off, NHSM will highlight the latest security gadgets designed to make life that little bit easier.

For further information about National Home Security Month visit www.homesecuritymonth.com or search for National Home Security Month on Facebook and Twitter.

25% of people admit to having no home security

EVER given a spare key to a contractor for while you're out at work? Do you feel comfortable leaving a key with a neighbour...?

Many might think it's perfectly reasonable to do this – particularly if you're confident that you can rely on the person you've entrusted with entry to your home. There aren't many people, though, who wouldn't think it a step too far to leave their door unlocked for the entire day...

But it seems as though a quarter of the country is essentially doing just that, with 25% admitting to not have any home security measures in place whatsoever.*

This stat alone is worrying enough, but following last week's news regarding a lack of police resources to respond to burglaries (and similar sorts of 'traditional' crime), it seems Britain needs to sharpen up on its home security!

The good news is, burglar alarms were found to be the most oft-invested item to secure homes – alarms have proven to be one of the most effective deterrents, even making a would-be burglar think twice about whether to target a particular property. But home security is about more than just a stand-alone device...

"How can so many people be so naïve?" we hear you ask. "Surely it's common sense to secure your property...?" This lack of provision is probably something of a legacy from when traditional systems cost hundreds (if not thousands!), required major upheaval to install, and sometimes required long-term contracts with ongoing monthly fees.

However, today's DIY home security is much more accessible, with homeowners and renters able to build and maintain their own customised security systems easily and inexpensively. Smart Living solutions, such as smart locks and smart alarms, can be fitted as a DIY project, and both offer convenience and peace-of-mind to homeowners. So now there's no excuse!

Top tips for student security

IT'S that time of year again when students across the UK return back through the classroom doors after their six week holiday. The stationery's been bought and bags packed, but have you considered security items to protect your child's belongings?

Whether they're heading back to school or off to university, personal security often takes a backseat. However, recent statistics revealed that students are one of the most high-risk groups for theft as they have more expensive consumer goods per head*, such as smartphones, tablets and laptops.

In fact, the average cost of a burglary amounts to £378 per student, but employing a few simple security solutions to protect belongings can easily prevent this.

Here are a few of our top tips to help with peace of mind.

Often underestimated, padlocks offer an easy and affordable way to secure individual bags and lockers and act as a deterrent, keeping personal belongings safe. Yale's affordable range has a variety of designs to suit any age. The novelty collection features football and handbag-shaped padlocks, or for the older teens perhaps off to university, the simplistic and stylish active range is understated, yet effective.

More and more students are riding bicycles to school or around campus as a convenient way to travel. However, bicycles are one of the five most commonly stolen items while in education as burglars can use them for a quick getaway. To ensure they are locked securely, use both a D-lock and robust chain and padlock for extra security.

For those living away at university, security can seem like an impossible task as hundreds of students walk freely around campus. Student accommodation frequently changes hands, so check with the landlord when the locks were last changed and if the keys are restricted or patented, meaning they cannot be copied without proof of ownership or easily duplicated due to their unique design.

For individual hall rooms specifically, purchasing a portable safe can keep personal items such as passports, money, jewellery and any important documentation protected.

So by implementing just a few simple solutions, students can ensure their belongings are kept safe and secure this semester.

Five finger discount for green-fingered thieves

AS THE sun begins to set on summer, police across the UK are issuing warnings, asking homeowners to be vigilant as shed and outbuilding burglaries increase by 25%.

Taking advantage of the shorter days and darker nights, burglars target outbuildings because of their value. A recent survey by Which? uncovered that 75% of those surveyed had more than £2,000 worth of equipment stored away.

The most commonly stolen items vary from gardening tools such as lawnmowers and strimmers, to camping and fishing equipment, bicycles and power tools. It's not just about the items that can be taken either. Resourceful thieves could use the instruments and ladders found in the shed to gain entry into your home.

So before downing tools and popping inside for a cuppa, here are six top tips for securing your shed this summer.

- It might sound obvious but you'd be surprised how many people don't lock the doors or windows on their outbuilding. Make sure the door is locked securely with a heavy-duty weatherproof padlock and hasp

- Do not leave any valuable items in view through the window. Invest in curtains or netting to prevent people from seeing in

- Fit an alarm system to alert you of any intruders. Affordable, battery-powered stand alone alarms can be placed freestanding or fixed to a wall for easy installation and convenience

- Install outdoor security lighting to deter potential thieves, as it is more difficult for them to remain undetected when trying to break in

- Use anchor locks and cables to secure any expensive, individual items within your shed or outbuilding

- Finally, take photographs of belongings stored away and make a note of serial numbers in the event that you do become the victim of a burglary, so you can give the information to the police

To report any suspicious activity in your area, call the non-emergency 101 line or alternatively ring Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 where information can be left anonymously if preferred.

The freedom to secure your home without the need for a key

THE Yale Keyfree Connected smart lock gives you freedom to secure your home without the need for a key. Simple to use, you now have complete control on how you unlock your door.

Convenience

There's no need to worry if your children arrive home early, or if you're stuck at work with friends on your doorstep. You control who and when people have access to your home. For example, you can set a PIN code that works for 24 hours for a family member or your cleaning person.

Simple to use

You choose how you want to open your door. PIN code, remote fob and even more from your smartphone when connected to a smart home system. It is also easy to add and remove users if you need to.

Security as standard

Feeling safe and secure is a must for any homeowner. In addition to a tamper alarm and incorrect PIN code feature the smart lock is approved by the Police Secured by Design scheme.

Always on

Don't worry if the electricity goes down as the smart lock is powered by 4 AA batteries. It will even warn you when the batteries are running low.

Connectivity

Complete your smart home system. The Keyfree Connected smart lock can connect to leading smart home systems when the appropriate module is fitted. It also connects to the Yale SmartPhone Alarm and CCTV systems when you use the Yale module.

Which smart lock is right for me?

WHATEVER type of door you have, there's a smart lock to fit your home. Use the simple guide below to see which locks right for you.

PVCu?

PVCu doors are the most common form of replacement doors and feature a multipoint lock running the length of the door. A multipoint lock often locks in three places and features rollers to ensure a tight, weatherproof seal, making for a highly efficient and more secure locking solution. PVCu doors are often made of a white plastic resin, but are available in other finishes.

Composite?

Composite doors also feature a multipoint lock, and are often finished in a woodgrain effect, to give them a more natural timber look.

Timber?

A traditional timber door usually features a nightlatch, which has a single locking point that is often round-edged and spring loaded. Timber doors can be fabricated from softwood or hardwood, and can include glazed panels and a moulded fascia. Finished in either a natural glaze or a coloured paint, a timber door can be easily identified by the distinctive sound of knocking on wood.

Lindy Parry Prodiatrist / Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Enlightened Body Pilates

Enlightened Body... Pilates, Feldenkrais and Massage Therapy

WELCOME to an enlightening way of exercising. At Enlightened Body, just outside Honiton, we invite you to move differently, whatever your starting point.

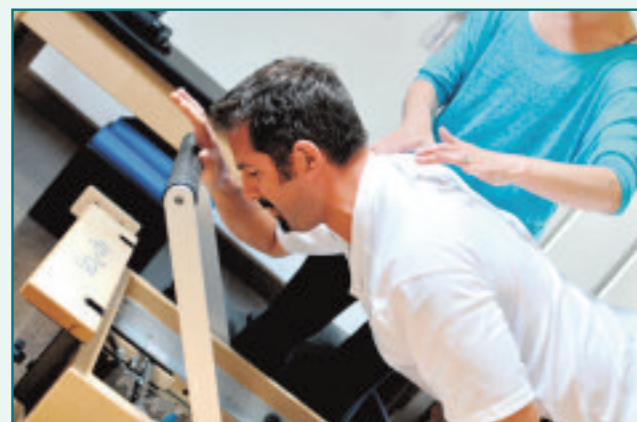

We are a team of 4 Pilates teachers, a Feldenkrais teacher and a Massage / Soft Tissue Therapy practitioner, all working together to help you get the most from your movement.

The roots of our work lie in the Pilates Method, not just the well known Mat Work, but diving into full depth of the system, using specialist equipment with springs and pulleys, helping you refine your technique and making your workout better, not just harder.

We invite you to discover the subtle power of the Feldenkrais Method with Barbara Simons. You will explore interesting challenges, like movement riddles, encouraging you to move more freely, with greater ease, flexibility and grace.

Improve function and performance by combining Massage & Soft Tissue Therapy and Pilates Matwork. Clare Gilmore will observe your movement and test your muscle function before targeted massage and soft tissue work. She will then reassess and coach your movement to maintain your newly improved function.

Both Feldenkrais and Pilates can be taken as private or small group lessons. Find out more via our website.

Bowen Therapy & Energy Healing

A Light Touch That Goes Deep

Melanie has been practising Bowen for 5 years in the east and mid devon areas, she is also a Hatha Yoga Teacher and more recently introduced Energy Healing into her work where she has found this fusion to profoundly deepen and affect her clients healing journey.

Developed in the 1950s in Australia by Tom Bowen, Bowen therapy is a stimulating, restorative, holistic therapy which aims to relieve pain and inflammation by releasing congestion and aiding the body's own healing process.

Bowen is a revolutionary non-invasive therapy which involves the therapist rolling their fingers and thumbs over muscle, nerve and connective tissue areas, interspersed by periods of rest. The ultimate goal is to reset the body systems and trigger the body's self healing process.

As humans, we have the ability to develop responses to stimuli extremely quickly, for instance if we find ourselves in danger we quickly determine how to respond to it. The same goes for all other situations, whether they be sexual, social or pain related. A Bowen therapist will use pressure that is appropriate for the individual so the movements do not provoke the body's natural defence system. Therefore Bowen therapy allows our bodies a much needed break, during which they are able to reset.

This Treatment can be performed over light clothing and its gentle touch makes it suitable for all ages including new borns and the elderly.

Appointments offered in Axminster, Sidmouth and Cullompton

Traditional Acupuncture Val Davis

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

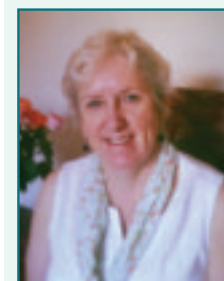

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

West of England Laser Centre

Twas the knife before Christmas

IF you are considering eyelid surgery to remove excess skin or fat and freshen and rejuvenate your appearance ready for the New Year then the Christmas period offers excellent recovery period and 'hideaway' time ready for a fresher, younger (yet still natural) appearance.

Excess skin and fat is surgically removed, usually from the outside, using natural skin creases, leaving no visible scar. This can be combined with laser skin resurfacing, or injection treatments, to remove facial lines.

Surgery is performed at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital by a Consultant Oculoplastic Surgeon, who specialises in plastic surgery around the eye and who also holds an NHS Consultant post. In addition the Consultant is fully trained in the use of lasers for other skin problems such as removal of fine lines/wrinkles, birthmarks, age/sun spots, moles, thread veins, excess hair and tattoos. Roots To Health Modern Herbal Medicine ROOTS To Health is a local complementary consultancy, advice and prescription practice run by qualified medical herbalist Jayne Palmer.

Herbal medicine, or Phytotherapy, is a science in its own right, based on modern scientific research. It's the world's oldest and most widely-used form of medicine and uses plant extracts to treat common health complaints such as raised blood pressure, headaches, stress and indigestion.

Jayne has a BSc in Phytotherapy. She spent many years working in local health food stores as a herbal advisor, then decided to work within a conventional medical role as healthcare assistant at Honiton Surgery, in order to gain the benefits of both fields of medicine.

Last year, she decided to set up her own clinic, which she now offers at the Health and Wellbeing Centre in Axminster on Mondays and at the Chiropractic Health Centre in Honiton on Saturdays.

Jayne explains: "Herbs can be used to treat the body in many different ways and, combined properly, will work effectively as medication for a large range of diseases. We are all unique and will respond to herbs differently. As a herbalist, I'm trained in the same diagnostic skills as orthodox doctors and choose herbs specifically for each individual. I search for, and treat, the underlying cause of the problem, rather than just the symptom, to restore the body's balance and activate its own healing powers.

"I believe that conservation is vitally important and use organically-grown plants wherever possible. Similarly, I try and source locally-grown plants to treat local ailments and actively promote sustainable prescribing of herbal medicines."

Initial consultations with Jayne last 60 to 90 minutes, during which you will be given a treatment plan including tailor-made prescriptions. These could include tinctures, creams or lotions, ointments, oils and infusions.

Stoptober is upon us, so what would you like to stop or change?

STOPTOBER is an country wide campaign calling on all smokers to quit smoking, starting on October 1st for one month. There is some research to support the idea that if you can stop smoking for 28 days, you're five times more likely to quit for good. The campaign is being supported all over the country, but what else could you apply this idea too, are you ready to make changes to your life?

It may be that, there is something stopping you. The small voice of self doubt, the negative self talk that tells, you can't, you failed before so what's the point? Or the will power just isn't there, do you put a moment of pleasure before your health and wellbeing or that of others before yourself?

If you want to change something in your life and are ready to make a commitment to yourself, then hypnosis can help, it has helped many people in the past, and it may just be the extra support you need to start hearing the voice within you that tells you 'YOU CAN DO IT'.

Clinical Hypnosis, works with many presenting conditions from stress and anxiety to phobias and fears, to helping you reflect and look at the journey you have taken to the behaviors you have unwittingly tuned into unhealthy habits, as much more.

Please make sure when you look for a hypnotherapist that they are registered with a recognised governing body like the Complementary and Natural Healthcare Council (CNHC) or British Society of Clinical Hypnosis (BSCH) and that their training was comprehensive, there are many courses some more thorough than others, no one will mind if you ask who they trained with and what qualifications they have.

If you would like to know if hypnosis can help you, please call Michelle Hague on 07761773563.

About Laser Therapy (LLLT)

Anti-inflammatory, Analgesic, Promotes repair
Low level laser therapy (LLLT) is the application of red and near infra-red light over injuries to increase the speed, quality and tensile strength of tissue repair; resolve inflammation and relieve pain.

LLLT is popularly used for acute and chronic pain on soft tissue injuries, joint conditions such as osteo and rheumatoid arthritis, neuropathic pain, post operation recovery and general body aches.

The only clinic within 100 mile radius using the same laser therapy system (LLLT) as the olympic and top international sports teams for photobiomodulation.

When cells are stressed, Nitric Oxide inhibits oxygen consumption by mitochondrial cytochrome c oxidase. This reduces production of a protein called ATP. LLLT displaces Nitric Oxide from cytochrome c oxidase thereby reducing inflammation and restoring ATP production, in turn allowing tissue to heal quicker and relieve pain completely drug free.

Other users of the same laser system include Harvard Medical School, NASA researchers, US Navy-RAF, British Army, BUPA and many more.

Slimming World

A collection of slimming perfection!

The results are in...the UK's leading weight-loss organisation has compiled the definitive list of slimmers' favourite dishes and beef lasagne tops the healthy recipe charts.

Slimming World used web statistics and information from letters, emails, social media posts and more to work out its 800,000 members' most-loved recipes. And now they've brought them all together in a brand-new book called Slimming World's Best-Loved Extra Easy Recipes, which is on sale in Slimming World groups now.

Sharon, who runs a Slimming World group in Honiton, says she believes this new collection is set to become a firm favourite for slimmers. She adds: "There are so many great Slimming World recipes, from Fish and chips to Pizza-topped chicken and Swede-topped cottage pie to Mississippi mud pie, that I'm sure working out which ones should be included – or which ones to leave out, come to think of it – was a huge challenge. The result is fabulous though, and I was delighted to see that all of my favourite recipes and the ones I know my members love were in there. I think this book is going to be the new kitchen bible for anyone trying to lose weight and eat healthily."

All 80 of the delicious dishes in Best-Loved Extra Easy Recipes, which includes light bites, main meals and desserts, are based on Slimming World's famous Food Optimising eating plan. The plan enables members to satisfy their appetite on 'Free Foods', like fruit and veg, lean meat, fish, poultry, pasta, eggs, rice and more, which can be enjoyed freely so slimmers can lose weight without ever feeling hungry.

Sharon says: "The beauty of Free Foods is that there's such a long list of everyday foods that members can enjoy without having to laboriously weigh and measure them. It means slimmers find that they can still enjoy healthy, hearty portions of all the meals they've always loved and lose weight just by making small changes to the way they prepare and cook them. It's perfect for guilt-free slimming. Best of all, the dishes taste great and are healthy for the whole family."

"Readers of Best-Loved Extra Easy Recipes who aren't familiar with Slimming World will probably be surprised to see so many timelessly tasty classics – include our most popular ever recipe Beef lasagne – in the book. It isn't 'diet food', and we know that eating delicious, healthy recipes like this will see people lose weight beautifully."

The recipes in Best-Loved Extra Easy Recipes suit all cooking abilities and each is accompanied by a photo of the finished article to tempt the tastebuds and help inspire novice cooks.

Slimming World's Best-Loved Extra Easy Recipes is available in all Slimming World groups in the UK and Ireland, priced £5.99, now.

BEST OF THE BUNCH

Boston ivy (Parthenocissus tricuspidata)

YOU won't find a more dramatic sight in autumn than a Boston ivy, also known as Japanese creeper, covering north, east or west-facing walls, as its large, deeply lobed green leaves turn spectacular shades of blood red and purple. These self-clinging deciduous climbers love well-drained, fertile soil and grow in sun or shade, usually producing a crop of blue-black berries in late summer. When planting, ensure the stems are held securely against the wall with canes or lead-headed nails, to enable the tendrils to fix their pads firmly to the surface. The stems tend to grow vertically, so it's worth spreading young stems out horizontally to cover a wider area. Boston ivy grows to a huge 20m (65ft), making it an ideal choice for really big walls. A more compact variety is 'Beverly Brook', which grows to 3m (10ft) or 'Lowii', which is very slow growing, reaching 3m (10ft). A taller type, 'Veitchii', will provide excellent autumn hues.

WHAT TO DO THIS WEEK

- Clean barbecues, garden furniture and non-frost-resistant pots and store them for winter.
- Finish repotting winter-flowering arum lilies (Zantedeschia aethiopica).
- Check ties of climbers and replace as necessary where the shoots are rubbing against supports.
- Mulch over areas that haven't been done and replenish those areas which have dispersed.
- Cut back dead or diseased branches of plum and cherry trees after picking. Paint saw cuts with wound paint.
- Clean water butts to prevent contamination of the water and blocked taps.
- Plant garlic outdoors in warm areas.
- After sowing a new lawn, keep off young grass as much as possible until spring.
- Sow seeds of pelargoniums in a frost-free greenhouse or conservatory.
- Start planting container-grown trees and shrubs in the garden once there has been enough rain to wet the soil thoroughly.
- Remove flowers from first year globe artichokes to allow roots to build up.

Decor's new frontier

PLAY-IT-SAFE decorators may already be hunkering down for Autumn in that time-honoured way - piling on old and familiar cosy throws and cushions - but the adventurous should explore decor's wild side.

There's a new rugged and real 'wilderness' look sweeping into style, which is either evocative of Wild West plains and cowboy ranches or, for the more intrepid, conjuring the dramatic Arctic tundra.

But don't fret if your wanderlust only extends to taking a short trip to the countryside. A traditional rustic woodland theme, with a style landscape teeming with creatures great and small, is still featuring strongly in collections.

"Warm and cosy in essence, 'Tundra' takes its influence from the distinctive timeless native traditions and breathtaking wilderness of the Arctic Circle," explains Fiona Lambert, vice president of brand design and development at George Home, which is rapidly gaining a reputation for slick on-trend ranges and is embracing both looks.

By Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

"We see 'Hibernate' as a softer, more tranquil country look, capturing autumn and narrating its colour changes through a subtle print and colour palette, and enhanced by key woodland characters and iconic images of forests and falling leaves for photographic wall prints."

Whichever way you journey - far and wide or closer to home - it's nature, tame or wild in tooth and claw, that's ruling in rooms.

It's your choice whether you seek refuge with nothing more threatening than squirrels and those ubiquitous stags, or bravely strike out and shelter with bears and wolves...

An example is Decking where a robust and beautiful Deck can be built either with Post and Rail Balustrades (illustrated) or with Spindles, which can be added later (also shown). Greenshutter Nurseries & Garden Centre GREENSHUTTERS Nurseries & Garden Centre is a family run business nestled in the heart of the Somerset countryside. It is open 7 days a week and stocks an extensive range of plants. The Garden Centre has completely changed in the last few years with the layout being completely re-designed. There are new entrances from the road and into the Plant Area and the old-fashioned wooden greenhouse has been restored to its former glory with its bright, white painted wood. Most of the plants are now on tables so you don't have to bend down to look at them and the layout has been designed to make the walk around the plant area enjoyable.

This year Greenshutters Garden Centre is stocking a much larger range of herbaceous perennials and roses, including new and unusual varieties. There is also a new range of quality garden benches dotted among the plants, so you are welcome to wander around the garden centre and take a rest as you go. You can even sit and enjoy the view over Taunton Vale and the Quantocks.

The business also incorporates EVERGREEN-HEDGING.co.uk, one of the largest stockists of evergreen hedging plants in the country. Thousands of plants are grown every year on the nursery from small to large, mature hedging plants; the best sellers being Laurel, Leylandii, Photinia 'Red Robin' and Portugal Laurel. These are delivered locally or nationwide or can be collected from Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre.

Greenshutters is run by Dr Roger Eavis, who bought the nursery in 1998 and the business has grown steadily every year since then. "We pride ourselves on good customer service and advice, good quality plants and I hope we have created a pleasant place to wander and enjoy the plants," says Roger, "We have a great team of staff who are always willing to help and give advice". Greenshutters Nurseries and Garden Centre is well worth a visit.

Take a trip down Memory Lane

THE "Memory Lane" exhibit at World of Country Life, Exmouth appeared on BBC's The One Show in July 2014 as part of the feature on the Sid Valley Memory Café's "Moments in Time" reminiscence project. You can stroll down the replica Victorian Street with pub, dress shop, game keeper's cottage, toy shop, garage and lots more - all hosting a wealth of curio, antique objects and unusual pieces from times gone by.

Also housed in the Exhibition Hall is the Museum of Farming which is a snapshot of rural life, nostalgia and times gone by, the highlight of which is the extraordinary collection of working farm and agricultural machinery collected by the Lee family over a 50 year period.

The Hall of Transport & Steam Shed are brimming with over 40 vehicles on display, boasting one of the largest classic car and vintage vehicle collections in Devon. You may have spotted some of our vehicles on television which have appeared regularly in Downton Abbey, Mr Selfridge and Parade's End.

If you are very lucky you may get to meet the famous 93 year old World War 2 veteran Reg Imray, a true petrol head. Born in 1922 he has owned 168 vehicles since 1941. A former Silverstone car racer and speedway rider, Reg has travelled the world and won over 200 trophies for his classic car and motorbike collection - most of which you can see on display at World of Country Life.

In addition to the museum exhibits there is a full daily entertainment programme* with a Bird of Prey Flying Display and animal racing events - either Ferret Racing, The Lamb National or Quacky Races! Musical Director celebrates 50 years of music making ROGER HENDY is celebrating 50 years of music making, kicking off the new Isca Ensemble season with a spectacular orchestral concert at the New Beehive Centre, Honiton on 3rd October commencing at 7.45 p.m. entitled 'A touch of Vienna' with famous works by Johann Strauss coupled with 'Vlatava' by Smetana and Beethoven's powerful Symphony No 5. Tickets may be obtained in advance from the Beehive Box Office 01404 384050 or at the door. This is the very special Liz Tirard 2015 memorial concert sponsored by the Joanna Leach Foundation.

Roger Hendy, MD Isca Ensemble, has for fifty years been involved in the development of orchestras in the South West since he was a science graduate at Exeter University. At the age of 18, he was the founder of the Exeter University Symphony and Chamber orchestras and later in his career as a teacher, founder of the Honiton Festival. For 26 years he directed the EMG Symphony Orchestra both at home and abroad. He has worked with dozens of famous soloists over the years many of whom were former BBC Young Musicians of the Year including Emma Johnson, Jennifer Pike, Anna Markland and Alan Brind. Top professionals such as Hu Kun, Pan Hon Lee, Richard Jenkinson, Freddie Kempf and Crispian Steele-Perkins are some of the many other soloists with whom he has collaborated in presenting concerts. Roger's highly praised concerts in Exeter Cathedral and Exeter University often used very large forces in the presentation of works by Mahler, Respighi, Beethoven and others. He also frequently conducted in France and over the years Roger collaborated with composers to commission new works. He received no formal training as a conductor being a science and mathematics graduate but developed his skills whilst teaching and managing in schools around East Devon and Hampshire as well as lecturing in mathematics at Exeter University. He has always found ways of supporting and encouraging young performers – a policy which continues to this day.

Roger has recently been appointed as Music Adviser for the Joanna Leach Foundation and Chairman of the Devon performing Arts Festival which are other vehicles for supporting young up-and-coming artists. He is also currently working on possibly music projects for Powderham Castle with the Guildhall School of Music in conjunction with the Mozarteum Salzburg, the famous University in Austria that specialises in music and the dramatic arts. He has also scheduled an important recital in conjunction with the Exeter Bach Society in Exeter Cathedral on 28th February 2016 which will feature Emmanuel Bach (violin) and Jenny Stern (piano). Roger is, however, very keen to maintain the special musical and community links which have been built up with Sidmouth Parish Church over the past few years.

Roger's active interest in orchestras continues with his current work with the Isca Ensemble now in its twelfth year. The orchestra of some 60 experienced and talented players has just announced another exciting season of concerts commencing with the first one at the Beehive, Honiton (3rd October) and a second at Sidmouth Parish Church (28th November) together with others planned for 5th March and 30th April 2016. All these concerts will be supporting the work of HOSPI-

CARE throughout East Devon. Through his concert initiatives and work with Isca String Quartet colleagues, over £3800 has already been raised this summer.

By popular demand, the young and extremely talented soloist, Emmanuel Bach will be returning to Sidmouth on 28th November to perform the famous Violin Concerto by Tchaikovsky. Coupled with Sibelius' 'Valse Triste' and the epic 'Eroica' Symphony, this is a concert not to be missed. Supported by local businesses in Sidmouth, members of the Sidmouth Hospiscare committee will be attendance at the concert. Emmanuel gave a fabulous violin recital to a packed audience in Sidmouth last April and a professionally produced recording of the concert will be issued shortly on CD.

Concerts stretching beyond 2016 have been arranged to feature in Sidmouth Parish Church. Notable highlights will be a performance of Vaughan Williams' wonderful 'London Symphony' on 5th March, a further visit by Emmanuel Bach to perform Vivaldi's 'Seasons' and the Bach A minor Concerto on 30th April plus a performance of the Bruch Violin Concerto by the wonderful Korean-born British violinist, Joo Yeon Sir in November 2016. There is much fantastic music to look forward to. As if this wasn't enough, Roger has also planned an orchestral workshop with players from the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra in January 2016. Strings players from the South West are warmly invited to contact him in order to participate. roghendy@gmail.com.

Further details can be found at www.iscaensemble.org.uk. Sidmouth concert tickets will be available as usual from Paragon Books, Sidmouth.

The small hall with the BIG reputation

David Hall

FOLK • ROOTS
ACOUSTIC • JAZZ
BLUES • DANCE
THEATRE • FILM

AFTER a musical break at The David Hall during August it was great to get the new season started with a return visit on Friday 18th September by Chris Wood – whose performance showed why he is one of this country's best and most popular singer/songwriters. As always, Chris was direct and spoke his mind on many subjects and issues, providing a night that was thought-provoking and spell-binding in equal measure.

Unfortunately, due to ill health, the massively talented Sunjay had to cancel what would have been his second time at The David Hall. However, we look forward to welcoming Sunjay again next year when he is guaranteed to astound the audience with his guitar skills, which have been hailed as 'Superb, brilliant, experienced, intricate and faultless'. I can put it no better. Sunjay is a real star of the future!

Also in September The David Hall held its first-ever Middle-Aged Crisis Disco – an event that is sure to be repeated! – plus, Simon Ellis entertained an audience age 12 and upwards with his tales of Ghosts and Characters of the South West, presented with a fast Ragtime-guitar.

October will be a really busy month of music which gets off to a fantastic start on Saturday 3rd with a first-time visit by Canterbury's great five-piece band, Co-Co and The Butterfields. They are booked to play for a 'Chance to Dance' event, which is selling fast and will be a really lively gig. I love this band, which is colourful, energetic and crowd-stomping. They play catchy songs delivered with powerful vocal melodies and an undercurrent of driving beat-box. Co-Co and the Butterfields provide one of the most phenomenal live shows in the UK. This is a gig not to be missed!

On Saturday 10th October we will celebrate the return of another of the UK's top singer/songwriters – Steve Tilston. Steve was last with us in November 2012 when he gave a fantastic performance. In the same year, Steve won the BBC2 Folk Awards Best Song category with his wonderful, The Reckoning. His new CD, Happenstance, is out now and contains – as do all his albums – some really great material. I know this is a gig that will be enjoyed by all.

The following Saturday, 17th October, we shall welcome the duo Winter/Wilson for their first-ever visit. Dave and Kip will provide great songs, beautifully sung and with much laughter. Dave is a magnificent songwriter and performer and Kip possesses one of the most amazing voices, delivering power and emotion in equal measure

On Sunday 18th October we shall enjoy a return visit by The Divertimento String Quartet. They will be presenting Classical Diversions from Beethoven and Dvorak to Tango and Jazz. This is a 'must' for all lovers of diverse kinds of music.

The month ends with a visit by one of the best Kora players in the world when Senegal's Seckou Keita performs on Thursday 22nd. Seckou is a true genius and has a phenomenal stage presence. His new album, called 22 Strings, is fantastic. It is never easy to get such a rare performer to our small space so this is a really exciting event. Come and be amazed!

Hoping to see you at The David Hall in October and to updating you again next month.

All the very best,
Pete Wheeler
Petherton Arts Trust

Museums at Night with Luke Jerram

HONITON'S Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) is set to launch 'Harrison's Garden', an ambitious new art installation as part of the national Museums at Night festival this October.

After defeating other UK venues to win the chance to work with celebrated international artist Luke Jerram, THG is hosting the artist's spectacular clock installation featuring 1,000 clocks at their public art gallery in Honiton, Devon.

Luke Jerram, who is based in Bristol, commented "This is an exciting opportunity to collaborate with an arts organisation I've not worked with before, on a new experimental project. It's a great privilege. Having collected hundreds of old clocks and sorted them into categories and sizes, I will create a garden of time. The clock-maker John Harrison's clocks were a breakthrough in chronology, hence Harrison's Garden. Winding pathways will draw visitors through the shifting landscape. Each area of the installation will sound different. The public will recognise some of the clocks from their home and from their past. The cacophony of clock sounds will heighten the visitor's awareness of time passing."

Luke Jerram is an internationally renowned artist, with work exhibited throughout the world including the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. He is known throughout the South West for his 'Park and Slide' which transformed Bristol's Park Street into a giant water slide.

Gallery Curator, Angela Blackwell praised the public support which saw the gallery winning the national vote: "Winning has given us this fantastic opportunity to work with Luke Jerram. We have collected a thousand clocks for Luke to create this installation in the gallery which opens from October 27th-31st with a really exciting programme of activities, talks and workshops throughout the week. THG will be open till 10pm on Friday 30th and Saturday, October 31st to celebrate the Museums At Night Festival".

'Harrison's Garden' will be open from Tuesday 27th to Thursday, October 29th from 10am – 8pm, Friday 30th and Saturday 31st from 10am – 10pm. Children's activities all week in the Learning Room.

Eight days of eerie entertainment at Beer Heights Frights Railway

What's Happening at Iminster Arts Centre this October

THE SEASON may be misty, but it is certainly mellow and fruitful at Iminster Arts Centre, where we have some wonderful events to enjoy, both by day and by night.

Throughout October the gallery will take on a cosmic vibe with Mapping Evolution, a mind-blowing exhibition of contemporary art quilts by Alicia Merrett and k3n. These two award-winning Somerset artists use fabric and stitch to explore big ideas such as quantum physics, evolution, geography and cosmology. Characterised by bold colour and inventive techniques, their work is a must-see for quilters and needleworkers. Alicia and k3n will be in the gallery on selected days throughout the exhibition to share their knowledge and inspiration.

Another treat for fabric fans is our Textile Fair on Wednesday 21st; the theme is 'vintage with a modern twist', and the fair features a hand-picked group of West Country artisans who all use vintage textiles in their contemporary creations. This is a perfect port of call for some early Christmas present buying.

Our October music line-up starts with a Concerts in the West performance by the Musicians of London Wall on Friday 2nd. Their programme "The Old Virtuosity Shop" showcases work written by and for some of the great players of the past. The following Friday (9th) sees the return of Ensemble Perpetuo, a dynamic collective of musicians playing a selection of pieces by Krommer, Mozart, and with Abigail Willis

Britten.

On Friday 16, jazz genius Mike Denham hosts another of his 'SpeakEasy' evenings, this time in the company of top jazz violinist, Mike Piggott. This will be a charismatic evening of wonderful, old-style jazz. Moving east, 'A Taste of India', on Friday 23rd, is a fascinating evening of north Indian music performed by Ricky Romain on sitar and Jon Sterckx on tabla. A pre-show curry supper can be booked in advance. We return to more familiar waters on Friday 30, with mainstream jazz by rising stars Amy Roberts and Richard Exall.

If you play an instrument and are interested in playing jazz, why not pop into our regular Jazz Jam? It's only £2 to take part – next session is on Monday 19th, 8pm.

Our art workshops continue throughout the month and include modelling in clay (Monday mornings), our Readers' Group (9 Oct), mastering the basics of guitar (10 Oct), Knitting/Crochet group (15 Oct), Felting (16 Oct), Rag Rugs (23 Oct) and Crazy Patchwork (28 Oct).

Art Chest, our new Saturday morning children's art workshop takes place on the 17th under the expert guidance of tutor Belinda Ireland. Come along and be inspired!

OODLES of things in October at The Beehive, as we launch into Autumn, we have a very exciting and diverse selection of movies for our weekly Friday night cinema, with 'Slow West' a Western with a difference, a young lad on a desperate quest, assisted by the roguish Michael Fassbender on Fri 2nd Oct. There is the wonderful Ian McKellen in 'Mr Holmes' on Fri 9th Oct followed by the modern twist of Flaubert's tale in 'Gemma Boveri' on Fri 16th Oct. During the half term we have two matinees of the 'Maya the Bee Movie' on Fri 30th Oct later there is an 8pm showing of 'Dartmoor Killing' by Bafta award winning director, Peter Nicholson who will then host a Q&A session with the audience after the film, which is a Psychological thriller set on Dartmoor. We are also delighted to be hosting an illustrated talk by the internationally renowned artist Luke Jerram, in partnership with the Thelma Hulbert Gallery on Fri 30th Oct 6.30pm. Please donate any old clocks to the THG for this exciting installation, here in Honiton!

On Sat 31st Oct, for Halloween we have a special showing of 'The Rocky Horror Picture Show' at 8.30pm. Folk in fancy dress (or not) are invited to gather in the bar beforehand. There will be prizes for the most marvellous costumes and the opportunity to sing along, so let's do the Time Warp again!

Much admired Musical Director Roger Hendy, who with over 50 years of making music under his belt will be directing The Isca Ensemble in 'A Touch of Vienna' on Sat 3rd Oct at 7.45pm. With a 60 piece, this is more of an orchestral concert and will be very special indeed.

Our annual Craft Fair is back on Sat 17th Oct 10-3pm, with over 50 craft stalls, with a huge array of home made gifts. The Beehive tea dances with live music and wonderful teas are on the second Friday of each month. We have one act playwriting workshops with Angela Street and are very pleased to announce the new Honiton Youth Drama sessions which are every Thursday from 4-6.30pm in term time and absolutely free.

Honiton Dementia Action Alliance have begun a walking group for those living with Dementia and their carers, which departs from the Beehive at 2pm on the second Thursday of each month for approx 45 min walk and then back to the café for tea, cake and a natter, it's all very sociable.

All-new Astra in Vauxhall showrooms from October

▲ Vauxhall's All-new Brit-built Astra

THE new Astra is now on sale, with first cars arriving in Vauxhall showrooms this October after its global debut at the Frankfurt Motor Show.

One of the UK's top-selling and best-loved cars, Astra is a household name for British car buyers with almost three million sold in the UK over the last 36 years, including 50,000 in the last 12 months. More than 25 per cent of British motorists have either owned or driven an Astra, so reaction to a new model will always be felt across the market.

New Astra is based on an all-new lightweight vehicle architecture with a new design, powertrains and technology, the Astra is built at Vauxhall's Ellesmere Port manufacturing plant in Cheshire. It is the lead plant for the new model.

Accounting for 12 per cent of C-Segment sales, key rivals in this fiercely competitive sector include the Ford Focus and the Volkswagen Golf. The Astra has a very diverse customer profile appealing to people from all areas of society, male and female, young and old. The retail/fleet split is 70:30 in favour of company car drivers and fleet decision-makers.

Depending on the model and trim level it is up to 200kg lighter than its predecessor. The completely new vehicle architecture plays a major role in the weight reduction. Every component was checked for compact design and lightweight materials. The body shell weight alone was reduced by 20 per cent from 357kg to 280kg.

Additional, chassis-related measures resulted in a further 50kg weight loss. These include high-strength and ultra-high-strength low-weight steels, compact subframes as well as weight reductions to the front and rear axle.

The powertrain portfolio features petrol and diesel units ranging from 100PS to 200PS, including an all-new 1.4-litre (150PS) ECOTEC Direct Injection Turbo and the recently-launched 1.6-litre CDTi Whisper Diesel.

New Astra is also the first Vauxhall to feature OnStar, the ground-breaking connectivity technology now available across Europe. OnStar includes high-speed 4G LTE mobile network, emergency response notification and stolen vehicle recovery alert.

Astra is also one of the first vehicles from a mainstream manufacturer to get Apple CarPlay and Android Auto, available through a new version of the IntelliLink infotainment system.

"The all-new Brit-built Astra raises the bar in terms of quality, design and connectivity," said Tim Tozer, Vauxhall's Chairman and Managing Director. "Lighter than ever before, with new powertrains and cutting-edge technology, the new Astra is set to shake up the C-segment when it arrives in showrooms this autumn."

BMW's compact Sports Activity Vehicle, the X1

▲ BMW X1 20d Sport (2015)

THE X1 has been a huge success since its launch in 2009. More than 730,000 were sold globally of that first generation with nearly 40,000 new owners of X1 in the UK over the same period. Now an all-new BMW X1 has been unveiled and features dynamic BMW X styling, a sporting character blended with outstanding efficiency, and an array of innovative equipment features in comfort, safety and infotainment.

Featuring an all-new range of engines and gearboxes, not to mention the latest, ultra-efficient version of the xDrive all-wheel-drive system, the second generation of the BMW X1 exemplifies BMW's EfficientDynamics philosophy. At market launch, one petrol engine and three diesel options are offered.

Design: Commanding presence, robust proportions and dynamic lines

Robust proportions, sculpted surfaces and genre-specific design features clearly mark the X1 out as a member of the BMW X model family. The front is defined by the large, upright BMW kidney grille, three-section lower air intake and characteristic "four-eyed" look formed by the twin circular head lights and fog lamps. Standard specification for the new BMW X1 includes LED daytime driving lights and for xLine and M Sport models full-LED headlights for low and high beam. This is optional for Sport line models.

The new car has grown most notably in height compared to its predecessor (+53mm), which helps to create extra space in the interior. When viewed from the side, the window surfaces taper towards the rear creating a particularly dynamic impression. At the rear, the central section of the rear apron rises up significantly, mimicking the frontal styling. Customers can choose from two non-metallic and 11 metallic exterior paint finishes for their new BMW X1, while the Estoril Blue metallic shade is also offered exclusively for the M Sport model.

The versatility typical of this new BMW X model is expressed not only in the driving characteristics of the X1 on various types of terrain and the sporting exterior looks, but also in the way its interior can be used, with more space for passengers and luggage.

On the inside, the new X1 strikes a fine balance between driver focus and practical elegance. The flat surfaces of the instrument panel and centre console controls are angled towards the driver, while the controls located in the lower section are surrounded by high-quality surfaces and are separated from the front passenger side by a newly designed bar. The instrument cluster, consisting of two circular instruments and framed by a small binnacle, also helps the driver to focus on the driving experience. Meanwhile, the iDrive operating system's Control Display comes in the form of a 6.5-inch or, optionally, 8.8-inch freestanding monitor. Navigation is standard on the new X1, as it is on all BMWs from September onwards. The rear seat bench comes as standard with a three-section split/folding backrest and is available as an option with the ability to slide forwards and backwards by 13cm.

Standard specification in the UK for the new BMW X1 includes cloth seat surfaces in the colour combination Anthracite/Black, and interior trim strips in Oxide, Silver dark matt with accent strips in high-gloss Black. Dakota leather trim in Black or Canberra Beige can be ordered as an option, as can interior trim strips in fine-wood matt Oak Grain and Fineline Stream. Beyond that, three further model lines can be selected.

The xLine model features a BMW kidney grille with bars that are matt aluminium at the front, with matt silver accents for the air intakes, side skirts and underbody protection.

The interior trim comprises Dakota leather with perforated and contrast stitching, available in Mocha, Oyster, Black or Canberra beige with black accents and interior trim strips in high-gloss Black with accent strips in Pearl Gloss Chrome. This pack also benefits from LED headlights and heated front seats.

The Sport Line model features black BMW kidney grille bars, air intakes with accents in high-gloss Black and underbody protection in Black Silver with an inlay painted – like the side skirts – in body colour. The interior of the Sport Line model features black sports seats with either red or grey accents, and interior trim strips in high-gloss Black or aluminium with accent strips in matt Coral Red.

Major upgrades for entire Kia Cee'd family

KIA unveiled a major package of advancements to the entire European-designed, European-engineered and European-made Cee'd family. The revisions, which affect the five-door Cee'd, three-door pro_Cee'd, spacious Cee'd Sports-wagon and sporty Cee'd GT and pro_Cee'd GT, introduce new powertrains bringing major improvements in fuel consumption and emissions, modified chassis settings and styling and trim changes. There are also significant additions to electronic driver assistance features and connected car services.

First deliveries of the new Cee'd family will be arriving in UK dealerships on October 1, priced from £14,905 (Cee'd), £15,250 (pro_Cee'd) and £16,750 (Sportswagon). The pro_Cee'd GT is priced at £23,105 and the Cee'd GT at £23,605.

New EcoTurbo petrol and CRDi diesel engines

The Cee'd family becomes the first range of models to be available with Kia's advanced new 1.0-litre ecoTurbo petrol engine as well as a new 1.6-litre CRDi diesel and seven-speed double-clutch (7-DCT) automatic gearbox.

The ecoTurbo engine was revealed at the 2015 Geneva Motor Show and are eventually destined to be used in a number of models. They are three-cylinder units featuring direct fuel injection and turbocharging. There are two versions, delivering 98 or 118bhp, for the Cee'd and pro_Cee'd, while the Sportswagon is available with the higher-powered unit.

Both are 998cc engines developed in-house at Kia's Namyang research and development facility in Korea, and have been engineered to require 10 to 15 per cent less fuel than the 1.4-litre multi-point injection or 1.6-litre GDi units in other versions of the Cee'd family, with similar reductions in emissions. Depending on model, fuel economy is up to 57.6mpg, with CO2 emissions as low as 113g/km.

All three Cee'd body styles are also available with a new 1.6-litre CRDi turbodiesel engine. This has increased power – up from 126 to 134bhp – with greater torque of 280Nm in manual versions and 300Nm with the new 7-DCT gearbox. CO2 emissions are down by as much as 10g/km in manual versions and now start at just 94g/km. However, the greatest gains are seen when the CRDi engine is paired with the 7-speed DCT gearbox. Compared with the previous model with a conventional six-speed automatic transmission, emissions tumble by almost 25 per cent, from 145g/km to 109.

The 7-speed DCT gearbox was also developed in-house at Namyang and, with a maximum torque capacity of 300Nm, will be used in a wide range of models within the next few years. It offers buyers the smoothness and comfort of an automatic with the sportiness of a manual when the driver wishes to take control of gear changes.

GEM offers safety tips to help blue light vehicles

ROAD safety and breakdown organisation GEM Motoring Assist today renews its support for the work done by our emergency services, with a reminder for motorists on how to stay safe and legal when making room for a 'blue light vehicle'.

GEM has also published a short video clip showing exactly what NOT to do in front of an emergency vehicle.

The safety call comes ahead of this year's Emergency Services Show (22/23 September at the NEC).

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "Everyone wants to help clear the way for an emergency vehicle, but sometimes it can be difficult to understand the expectations of the emergency driver. "That's why we are issuing a set of simple tips that will hold good for just about any situation.

"Awareness and observation are the most useful skills when you're driving, as you will see and hear an emergency vehicle earlier, and will have more time to plan what – if anything – you need to do whilst staying safe and legal in the process.

"Often, all that's needed is a brief, considerate move to the left to give some extra space to the emergency vehicle. Just remember that you have no exemptions to the law, so don't exceed speed limits, don't go through red traffic lights, don't use bus lanes and don't do anything dangerous in your attempt to help."

What not to do

The short video clip was filmed from a Suffolk Police vehicle responding on blue lights to a road traffic collision near Ipswich. It perfectly illustrates the need for drivers to be calm and not to react suddenly.

Safety tips for drivers from GEM for assisting emergency vehicles:

Stay calm and avoid sudden braking. You're responsible for your own actions on the road, so whatever you do mustn't break the law or cause danger.

If you can, indicate left and pull over, keeping an eye out for pedestrians and cyclists. Avoid pulling over on the brow of a hill, a bend or on a narrow section of road.

Don't mount the kerb, as this could put pedestrians at risk and may cause damage to your vehicle.

GEM's 'Blue Light Aware' video is available at www.bluelightaware.org.uk and on YouTube.

Local Sport – football round-up

Tigers turn things around at Liverton

South West Peninsula League

Division One East Liverton United 1 Axminster Town 4

ANOTHER away fixture quickly followed the game at Budleigh. This time we were at Liverton who are not enjoying their best start to a season.

We have always, in general, thought of matches in categories; those you should win, those you could win and those which you would need to be at your best to come away with anything.

The manager explained to the team that, if they were to move up the table and prove we are progressing, this was a game we should win. This is not designed to put pressure on players, but to make them aware of expectations and performance levels needed.

What a difference a few days makes! The first half needs to be consigned to the far reaches of our memories. Everything we did well in the previous game we did not do in the opening 45 minutes.

We didn't pass the ball, we were lacklustre in all areas of the pitch and in general looked a totally different team to that which had performed so well against Budleigh.

Half-time arrived with us deservedly losing 1-0 in a game we definitely should win. A few home truths came to the fore during the interval, everyone agreeing that this was far from acceptable and we were letting ourselves down in all departments.

What a response! The introduction of Jon Hurford gave us energy down the left flank and he was a constant thorn in the side of the opposition throughout the half.

We got back into the game when Ben Turner coolly slotted the ball home from the edge of the area after an initial shot was half cleared. The game had now turned thanks to the new found attitude and urgency of the players.

We were passing quicker, tackling harder and creating chance after chance. Jon Hurford put us ahead with an excellent effort from a wide angle. Tony Pinder added to this and Adam Cowling, approaching his 40th birthday, deservedly scored the fourth.

Three points won, even though the second half performance was infinitely better than the first, the lads still knew that they were not at their best by any means.

You can only ask for a reaction and that is what they gave. That in itself is encouraging, knowing that we have players who care and understand when they need to step up and respond.

The next game is at home to Crediton United on Wednesday (7:30pm KO).

Devon & Exeter League

Premier Division Chard Town Reserves 2 Seaton Town 2

CHARD had the better of the early exchanges and came close to taking the lead in the second minute when Jamie Barfoot ran on to a through ball and sped past his marker before placing a shot just wide of the upright.

The home sides persistence finally paid off in the 18th minute as good play by Ben Meer and Luke Jackson set up James Boyland who weaved his way past three defenders before slipping the ball neatly past Seaton glove man James Goodhew to open the scoring. Chard's joy lasted twelve minutes when hesitance in defence saw them fail to clear their lines and Josh French lofted the ball over Matt Sweet to equalise.

The Robins came close to restoring their advantage on the stroke of half time, but Meer's low drive brought a superb full length diving save from Goodhew.

The visitors looked much sharper after the break and forced Chard to concede three corners in as many minutes and this pressure saw them take the lead in the 55th minute with a headed goal from Lewis Cotnam.

Fourteen minutes later it appeared that the hosts would be given the opportunity to get back on level terms when Boyland was pushed in the back as he was about to tee up his shot from inside the area. However, referee Nicholas Chapman failed to spot the infringement and waved play on.

Chard only had to wait another three minutes before getting their equaliser. A corner by Meer was palmed away by Goodhew to the right hand edge of the area where substitute Brad Marsden crossed it back in towards the penalty spot to Dan Harvey who sent an unstoppable header into the back of the net.

Both sides had chances to win the game as Kieran Bailey and Meer went close for Chard. And Seaton saw a long range dipping shot by French tipped over the bar by Sweet and an effort from Martin Hancock rebound off the base of the post.

Overall, a draw was a fair result between two sides who gave an entertaining afternoon's play for their supporters.

Axminster Town 2nds 10 North Tawton 5

NORTH Tawton started quickly opening the scoring and, after a defensive mix-up, went two up in 13 minutes.

Giving ourselves a mountain to climb we managed to close the gap in the 21st minute when the ball deflected off Joe Urquart's back.

In an end-to-end game North Tawton broke away and scored to lead 3-1. This seemed to stir Axminster into action and within a minute Ollie Highet got the Tigers' second after a good move.

Axminster's strong attacking line-up looked more and more threatening and Sam Dibbling scored this time without the need of a deflection in the 39th minute.

Just when it looked like the interval would come at all even, North Tawton scored their fourth to lead into the break. Axminster equalised within five minutes of the restart through Sam Dibbling 4-4.

The Tigers went ahead for the first time when Gary Spiller scored in 56 minute and he again was on target just a minute later. On 58 minute Joe Urquart scored his second and this spell of play seemed to suck the life out of North Tawton at 7-4.

Axminster were dominating with only the occasional attack coming from the opposition. Luis Pinto replaced Gary Spiller and shortly afterwards Dan Beer scored his first making it 8-4.

But North Tawton were not done when on a rare foray they scored their fifth and last goal of the afternoon.

This didn't seem to stop Axminster and Ollie Highet finished well in the 68 minute for his second of the afternoon.

Dan Beer scored his second on the 85 minutes and that was the final score, but not before the Tigers missed an 87th minute penalty being well saved from Dan Beer, denying him his hat trick.

Exmouth Amateurs 3rds 1 Axminster Town 3

WE TRAVELLED to Exmouth to face a team second in the league.

The first half was dominated by the strange decisions made by the referee! We let this affect us more than the opposition and paid the price as on 30 minutes we conceded a soft goal.

Half-time came and after a stiff team talk we came out for the second half in a more positive frame of mind. This clearly showed as we started to play the kind of football we know we are capable of.

On 60 minutes we got the equaliser scored by Harry Day, virtually from the kick off we went in front through Declan Ellis.

We now played with confidence and a smile on our face and went on to win 3-1, the third coming from Declan Ellis who claimed the man of the match award. After six games, we proudly sit on top of the league unbeaten, on 16 points.

Axminster Youth Teams

ON SATURDAY the Under 8s had a good morning in Feniton, playing Westex first, winning a close game 2-1. Owen Clifton scoring both goals.

They then played Feniton, the two teams were evenly matched, and the game finished in 0-0 draw. All the lads did very well and can be proud of their performances.

As a club we are looking to expand the number of Youth teams; if your child, grandchild, niece or nephew is between four and 18, give Andy Hurford a call on 07795 21760 for more details.

Two games for the U9s against Central City from Exeter. The first game we lost 2-1 played some good football, dominated long periods but couldn't find a finish to the good work put in. Our goal came from Jack Pulman.

The second game against a very big physical U9s side we conceded an early goal, fought hard, but couldn't overcome Central's physical presence and ran out 3-1 losers.

Joseph Morgan battled hard against the giants refusing to let their size get the better of him. Jack Pulman scored our only goal.

The Under 9s and Under 8s took the opportunity to be part of the half time entertainment at St James Park during Exeter City's home game against Hartlepool. The boys had a great day and Exeter won too!

BEER ALBION

BEER Albion found themselves playing Newtown for the second time in two weeks and regrettably this meeting was no more fruitful than the last, writes ROGER HOARE.

The Fishermen did stand shoulder to shoulder with their opponents for the first 20 minutes and young Seth Wakely had a glorious chance to put Beer in front inside the first minute, but the shot went wide.

Newtown began to find space on their left and exploited it twice, very clinically, and were comfortably 2-0 up as half-time approached.

However, with seconds of the half left, Beer player Chris Bowles fell and twisted his knee badly and was stretched off.

The sight of a colleague sidelined waiting for an ambulance did nothing to help the rest of the team and Newtown added two more goals in the second half without reply. The knee injury suffered by Chris will sadly mean the end of his footballing career.

Next up for the Fishermen this Saturday is an East Devon Senior Cup third round tie at home to Lymestone (2:30pm KO), with the match sponsored by Beer Fish, Sea Hill, Beer.

● BEER Reserves took on Alphington 3rds but there was to be no repeat of the opening day joy for Beer when these two sides last met, with the Fishermen going down 2-1, writes SIMON SMITH.

Beer deserved more out of this game than they got, dominating possession and chances in the first half, and were unlucky not to be awarded for a penalty after young Ross Broom was caught late by a dangerously swung arm.

However although the referee saw the incident and booked the offender, he strangely awarded a drop ball in the area.

This was not the last bit of luck the hosts were given, both the Alphington centre backs were fortunate to stay on the field after a string of crude, untimely and sometimes dangerous attempts to halt Beer's build up play.

Nathan Newbury had a brilliant free kick saved by Alphington's man of the match keeper and several other efforts were thwarted.

The Beer defence had very little to startle them and restricted the home side to hopeful long distance efforts.

As the second half began the belief was visibly returning to Alphington and they started to capitalise on their good fortune, posing a greater threat to a previously troubled back four.

The nature of their opening goal came as no surprise, with a scrappy build up and a simple tap in, then another after centre back Josh Moughton had received a match ending injury leaving enough space for the home team to make it 2-0. Beer continued to toil away and got some reward when Jack White scored from some 40 yards, directly from a freekick. This changed the momentum of the game again and the last ten minutes were littered with opportunities to equalise, but it was not to be.

On Saturday the Reserves travel to Winkleigh for a Football Express Cup second round tie.

Millwey Rise 3 Winkleigh FC 2

MILLWEY strode into this game and within the first 15 minutes were two up courtesy of some excellent team work and their prolific front man Levi Hoole.

He scored his first running onto a through ball and beating the keeper with a powerful low strike. For the second he soared high above the defenders to place a well directed header into the net.

It seemed at this point Millwey felt they had done enough which resulted in them losing control of the midfield to some skilful and determined play from their opponents who scored twice to level the game before half-time.

This could have been even more but for some vital interceptions by Stuart King in the middle of the home side's defence. The nearest Millwey got to scoring was a shot from Shane Featherstone that grazed the upright.

The second half saw chances at both ends in a thoroughly entertaining encounter and it was left to Hoole to complete his hat-trick in the 60th minute to give Millwey the vital winner and maintain their undefeated run.

There is no doubt that Winkleigh are the strongest side to visit Cloakham Lawns so far this season and certainly tested the home team's resolve. It was to Millwey's credit, especially the defence led by Stuart King, and goalkeeper Nathan Hoole's safe hands, that they came through with their fine start to the season intact.

● THE Reserves, making the long journey to Lapford, put on a far better performance than last week's disappointing result.

Although they went down 2-0 they were a far more organised and determined outfit. The two goals they shipped were both powerful headers from corners which gave the Millwey keeper no chance.

For Rise, Ray Coombes in centre midfield and newcomer Chris Lusty in defence were the pick of the much improved team.

● NEXT week Millwey 1st XI are away to Royal Oak in the Football Express Cup. The Reserves are at Cloakham Lawns where their visitors are Elmore 2nds in the Geary Cup. Both games kick-off at 2:30pm.

CREWKERNE

CREWKERNE player-manager Paul Gold put the home side 1-0 up with a very good finish, but the Hounds were soon level, writes MARK HUGHES.

After a spell of pressure in the Crewkerne area ended with a home defender heading into his own net to make it 1-1, it stayed that way until half-time.

Midway through the second half Tom Rutland headed Steve Battericks' corner back across the goal mouth and Leigh Hansford got a connection on the ball to makes sure it went in 1-2.

Then with not much left on the clock a Crewkerne defender handled the ball inside the box and ref Tom Richardson pointed straight to the spot. Hansford stepped up and dispatched a perfect spot kick to notch his third goal in his last two games.

Hansford was picked as man of the match, also Lee Cuff is enjoying a good run of form.

Backward steps as Glovers lose again

SKY BET FOOTBALL LEAGUE TWO

Yeovil Town 1 Hartlepool 2

IT'S a case of one step forward and – in Yeovil's case – three back, as the Glovers slumped to yet another defeat at Huish Park on Saturday.

Despite a solid performance from Josh Sheehan, back on loan from Swansea in place of Josh Wakefield who has returned to the Cherries, as well as good performances from the back four and Luton Town loanee Jake Howells, Yeovil's overall display was disappointing.

It appeared that that in their last three games the standard had picked up with management realising that not being the biggest side in the league, playing the ball on the ground was the way to success.

However against a much taller and more physical side in Hartlepool they returned to the lump it in the air, long ball scenario, which was meat and drink to the visitors' defence.

The one bright spot was Yeovil's equalising goal, Nathan Smith linking well with Howells who showed all his experience and guile by threading a cross to the far post where Ryan Bird came sliding in to net.

Admittedly Pools' winner was lucky, sub Kudus Oyenuga badly mishitting his attempted angled shot at goal which fortunately ran to another replacement Brad Walker running in at the far post who neatly tucked the ball home.

Manager Paul Sturrock's gamble to play Ollie Bassett, who at 17-years-old became the youngest player to pull on a Yeovil shirt at Crawley the week before, unfortunately backfired.

He failed to get into a game that always suggested it would be hard fought, and whilst he showed the odd neat touch, he did not get fully immersed in the game and appeared only on the periphery of the action.

I wonder how much influence Terry Skiverton and Darren Way still have at Huish Park, as I continue to see aspects that prevailed in their unsuccessful time at the helm.

The long ball syndrome and failing to use your substitutes until it is too late; Mark Beck only being introduced after Hartlepool's second goal seven minutes from time, and no third sub used were glaring reminders of Skivo's ideas.

Mind you it's no wonder subs don't get on the pitch quicker; they have to watch Dazza scrolling through the umpteen possible options on his iPad for ages before they get on!

The crowd was just over 3,000 on Saturday and with this fayre being served up there's only one way it can go!

Come on Yeovil, let's get a grip before it's too late and we become the first side in Football League history to suffer three successive relegations.

golf round-up honiton

MIXED SECTION

THERE was quite a small field for this week's competition - Four Clubs and a Putter. The format was Greensomes Stableford.

Choice of clubs is important and, if you decide not to select a sand wedge, you have to keep your fingers crossed that your playing partner will manage to avoid all the bunkers.

The winners, decided on just one point on countback on the back nine, were Sue Ritchie and Keith Bellinger with 35 points. Only just missing out, also on 35 points, were Jan Portlock and Richard Pyle.

The Ladies Secretary, Lesley Oxenham, presented the prizes and gave a vote of thanks to Maureen and Laurie Tollemache who have organised these competitions for the month of September.

LADIES SECTION

LADIES were competing for the Betty Harris Trophy this week, a medal competition. Playing conditions were difficult with no run on the ball with the morning dew. However, it was very warm and pleasant out on the course.

The runaway winner was Jackie Seager with a score of net 73. Sue Ritchie won the best gross prize with a score of 93.

Gill Johnson claimed the longest drive on the 18th hole. Nearest the pin on the second hole for Bronze Division players was won by Stephani Barnes and on the 12th hole for Silver Division players by Lady Captain Olwen Eaton.

In the Silver Division, Heather Clarke took first prize with a net 79. Lady Captain Olwen Eaton was in second place, also with a net 79 and Jane Watts came in third with a net 80.

In Bronze One, Stephani Barnes was first with a net 77, Sharon Dacre second with a net 80 and Dot Grove third with a net 81.

In Bronze Two, Jan Lloyd took first place on countback with a net 84 and Sheila Palmer came in second, also with a net 84.

In the nine hole Stableford competition, Jenny Raison was first with 10 points, Babs Knight second on countback with nine points and Christine Whiteley third with nine points.

SENIORS SECTION

TWENTY teams of three contested the Seniors' Longhurst Cup held in Stableford format.

The first players in made the best score. They were Seniors Captain Mike Watts, Ron Rogers and club chairman Peter Clarke. No one else could touch their 46 points. Runners-up were Ian Orford, Ted Chandler and Tom Tunnicliffe. Dave Maggs, Alan Morris and Robin Mitchell were third and Roger Matthews, Phil Faulkner and Alan Rowley took the last prizes.

Tony Williams and Fred Thomas scored the only twos of the day and shared 42 balls.

hockey chard

FOR Chard's men's and ladies' sides, the new league season started last weekend.

The club's regular training sessions on Wednesday evenings are in full swing on the all weather pitch at Holyrood Academy: 7pm to 8.15pm for the juniors and 8.15 to 9.30pm for the seniors with a warm up from 8pm for the latter. New players are always welcome.

Hockey is enjoying a national surge of interest of late on the back of the success of the national teams.

Besides the ladies lifting the European Trophy for the first time in 24 years, continuing their upturn in form dating back to the London Olympics, England's Men reached the last four of the Euro-

Hockey Championships as well, just missing out on the bronze medal.

England Hockey, the sport's governing body has launched a nationwide HockeyFest to catch the enthusiasm generated by this success and Chard Hockey Club is keen to be part of this.

The club had its own share of success last season, the men's 3rd XI winning promotion while the 1st XI made a late surge to finish third in their division, just missing out on promotion themselves.

More information is available on the club's website at www.chardhockeyclub.co.uk

You can also find the club on Twitter and Facebook.

Seaton pair prove dedication pays off

◆ Mercedes Connor and Jesse Bret California

BODYBUILDERS Mercedes Connor (34) and Jesse Bret California (28) from Seaton in Devon were due to be competing last Sunday for £17,000 of prizes in the regional qualifiers for Pure Elite London at The Beck Theatre, Hayes.

Jesse was competing in the Beach Body category while Mercedes was competing in three categories: Tattooed Muscle, Fitness Model and Muscle Model. Both are natural athletes.

Three years ago, Jesse, a former accountant, weighed in at nearly 16 stone and had a 40 inch waist. Jesse said: "I first went into bodybuilding just to lose a bit of weight and then it engulfed my life.

"My priorities changed from going out drinking and not looking after myself to being in the gym. I've transformed myself and now believe I can take this experience to become a personal trainer.

"I've only competed once before, but still came 15th out of 40. I'm hoping this time to make the top five, but it will be tough as I'm up against 21 other competitors."

Mercedes has already achieved competition success for Women That Lift, Fitness Model and G-Lifting where she was placed 2nd (twice) and 3rd. She hopes to retain a 3rd place or higher this time round.

The couple first met on Facebook, then through a gym where they became training partners. They now train every morning and evening at B! Health and Fitness in Lyme Regis.

Craig Bernhardt, Founder of B! Health and Fitness said: "The dedication and total commitment displayed by Brett and Mercedes to transform their physiques for the competition has been nothing short of inspirational.

"What makes this even more impressive for me is that they are demonstrating to others that you can have an incredible physique without using harmful synthetic substances, such as anabolic steroids.

"Results that are derived from hard training, a good tight diet, appropriate rest and sheer hard work and determination are so much more impressive."

SEATON

SEATON turned in their best performance of the season when they played teams Twyford Spartans and Gladiators from Tiverton.

They were simply irresistible against the Spartans running out 7-2 winners.

The team play was exceptional, even more so when you consider that Eric McLennan and Daniel Baltruschak were making their Seaton debuts, but both the new boys did very well.

Aaron Hale did the damage in attack, with four well taken goals, George Gait, Christian Pinnoch and Max Nevell completed the scoring. However, they found it difficult to maintain this level and looked tired as they went 3-0 down to the Gladiators at half-time.

But in the second half they got their second wind and turned up the heat again in a stirring response.

They created chance after chance but got no reward for their efforts and the game finished 3-0. Harvey Green was awesome in defence, but the man of the morning was Aaron Hale, a perfect blend of silk and steel, as he ran the opponents defences ragged.

SIDMOUTH

ON SATURDAY Sidmouth Warriors Under 10s travelled to Axminster to play Millwey Rise Eagles.

This was always going to be a hard fought contest – these teams had met in the cup final only a few months earlier.

The Warriors held their shape brilliantly early on, with Callum French marshalling the defence and it wasn't long before the pressure on the Eagles told and man of the match Ben Elsom was able to fire home from range.

Excellent performances from Charley Turley and Tom Cload on the wings provided the strikers with plenty of opportunities and the Warriors were 3-0 up at half-time.

The second half was tight early on with Millwey playing some good football but again after an excellent team passing move Dev Nair was able to volley in past the keeper.

The game finished after Jamie Pitter grabbed his second and the team closed out the game 5-0.

rugby chard RFC

Chard let their half-time lead slip away

SOUTH WEST ONE
Wells 22pts Chard 19pts

CHARD will be kicking themselves for allowing this game to slip from their grasp after having a comfortable 16-3 lead at half time.

For the third game in a row Chard lost by the narrowest of margins and came away with just one losing bonus point because they finished within seven points of the winners.

Chard knew they could and should have won the game but player coach Simon Jenkins commented after the game that Wells deserved the win because of their second half display.

They knew how to use the slope to their advantage and were certainly 'up for it' whereas Chard were often going through the motions which left many of their supporters rather disappointed.

Chard had much of the proceedings in the first half when they had the advantage of the slope even though Wells had taken the lead with an early penalty.

A try from Jenkins plus a conversion and three penalties from the boot of fly half Humphries gave the visitors a comfortable lead and in truth if Chard had scored any further points in the first half then surely Wells would have had too big a mountain to climb.

Wells however really upped their game in the second period and some astute kicking into the bottom corner got them into many good attacking positions as they certainly knew how to take full advantage of using the slope to good effect.

Chard lost several balls against the head and their forwards who have been the mainstay of the side for several seasons now were beginning to feel the pressure, although they were not helped when skipper Mortensen had to leave the field.

The enthusiasm of the home players aided by the vocal support of a good home crowd paid off and Wells crossed for three fine tries, two of which were successfully goaled.

Chard really got back into the game in the last ten minutes. Initially they reduced the arrears with a penalty and then following another long kick into the corner Chard had a golden opportunity to get the winning try from a catch and drive situation.

Chard have perfected this art in the last few years but on this occasion the home defence held firm and aided by a stray pass Wells held on for a deserved win.

A disappointing day for Chard and they will certainly need to address some of the issues which came to the fore in this match.

However on the plus side coach Jenkins singled out young Chard centre George Dowse for special praise as he gets better with every match at this level.

Ryan Helliard had his usual all action game and Chris Spurdle is getting back to form after a long period out of the game because of injury.

An opportunity also came for one or two of the clubs colts to get some time on the pitch as a replacements which can only be good.

After four games Chard now lie just below midtable in the division with eight points when in reality they could have been much nearer the top.

SOMERSET DIVISION ONE

Chard 2nds 29pts Wyvern 1sts 27pts
AFTER weeks of real struggle Chard 2nd XV at last came good on Saturday with this narrow victory against their visitors from Taunton.

Chard trailed 10-16 at the break but had managed to cross for two tries scored by Glen Harding and Paul Wright.

In a tense battle Chard scored three further tries in the second half when a try from Billy Biss was followed by a penalty try awarded by the referee after an illegal bit of play by the Wyvern players close to their own line.

Ben Robinson scored a late try to seal a win for Chard with Dan Newman getting two conversions.

A big improvement for Chard but they still have a long way to go and with more players returning to the fold competition for places will increase which can only be a good thing.

The team owed a debt of gratitude to the Colts management team particularly Duncan Nicholls for helping them out on the day.

SOMERSET DIVISION TWO
Crewkerne 2nds 29pts
Chard 3rds 10pts

MANY thanks are due to club chairman Gavin Smilie for all his efforts in getting the 3rd XV back into action when a very short time ago it looked likely they would have to fold.

He led from the front and played the whole 80 minutes! Chard took a full side to Crewkerne but with no referee allocated Chard councillor Martin Carnell, who was supposed to be playing, took up the whistle so that the game could go ahead.

James Gammage and Warren Lewis scored the Chard tries. It has to be said that Lewis was quite outstanding for Chard throughout.

The game was fairly even but some extra pace in the Crewkerne backs was too much for Chard to handle at times and was the turning point of the game in terms of the result.

However the most important thing was that the game went ahead and hopefully will kickstart even more local players to get back playing again.

After over 40 years with a 3rd XV it would be a big loss to the club if the team had folded.

● PLEASE note that there are no senior league games scheduled for next weekend. However a vets game is to kick-off on the main pitch at 1.30 pm and this will be followed by a Colts game at 3pm.

The Colts have had a good start to the season with wins against Taunton and Wellington but their game last weekend was postponed because a suitable referee was not available.

Also come early to get your seats for the big World Cup match on Saturday!

running around the clubs

It's been a busy week for local running clubs

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Carol Austin

AXE Valley Runners have been busy taking part in triathlon, duathlon, road and trail running showing that AVR is a diverse and talented club.

Susie and Rosie Thoenissen took part in the LANGPORT LADIES NOVICE TRIATHLON in Somerset. Rosie, in only her second triathlon, finished an impressive 15th out of 105 while Susie, making her debut, came in 39th and 7th in her age category.

Meanwhile, nine members made the short trip for the COTLEIGH CANTERS.

In the 3k fun run Holly Eyre was first u16 girl home finishing 16th out of 57 in 14.39.

In the 5k race Mia Bartlett was 9th out of 23 in 22.46 with Rick Wood 13th in 26.52 winning the first male over 60 award.

For the second successive year, Jake Smith stormed to victory 10k race in a magnificent time of 33.48. Ollie Caute was 12th in 40.23 followed by Rupert Pady in 41.24.

Third woman and first W55 was Eleanor Wood in 29th place in 44.10.

A week after a brilliant marathon performance, Margaret Pearce finished 49th in 48.20 closely followed by Alan Morbey in 50.12. Andy Sayers ran hard to finish 65th in 52.39.

Up at WORCESTER Racecourse Carol Austin took part in the run-bike-run relay running the first 10k leg in 45:21 before handing over to friends to complete the 20k bike and the final 5k run. The team came a respectable 4th out of 18 and was the first mixed gender team.

Meanwhile Lesley Adams ran the 10k race along with another 2038 runners and finished in 59:50, 477th woman home and 14th W60.

The icing on the cake for the pair was to meet East Devon's resident running star Jo Pavey afterwards. Jo came home first woman in a touch over 33 minutes.

Over in Dorset Angela and Martin Kerr completed the PURBECK 16 MILER. Angela finished in 3:19.05, 3rd W60 with Martin a very satisfactory 3:44.08.

Finally, Luke Reed competed in the DAWLISH SPRINT TRIATHLON where the fog also played its part with the swim shortened to 600m.

Luke was in 10th place after the swim in 10.41. Unfortunately during the 21k bike section he suffered a puncture and couldn't fix it, so rode the remaining 15k with a flat tyre.

This ended his chances of a top 20 finish but he still completed the run with the fastest split of the day of 20.54 for 5k leaving him 63rd overall out of 270.

HONITON

SEVERAL Honiton Running Club members took part in the second running of the Stockland Scamper last weekend.

There was a field of 54 for the main 10k but many more for the 3k and fun run. It was organised by Stockland Academy PTFa with the help of Axe Valley Runners.

The race was won by local Simon Durrant in a time of 42 minutes 29 seconds. First Honiton runner home and second overall and also winner of his category was Karl Hodson who finished in 43:13. Next back was Chris Entwistle who finished 8th in 48:47.

The 3k race saw an amazing 124 finishers with Simon Davies the overall winner in 11:47. Honiton's Jasmine Stone had a fantastic run and finished as 2nd female in 12th place overall in 14:11. Jasmine's younger brother Harrison came 45th in 17:26.

Much of the race was run on private ground so thanks must go to the kind farmers for allowing the runners on their land. Thanks also to the organisers and marshals for a great event.

CHARD

CRRs were out in force on Sunday at three challenging events.

First to attract CRRs was the Stockland Scamper – this 10k multi terrain race in typical hilly East Devon terrain sported a small but very keen field. This race was preceded by a hugely popular junior event that had, with some accompanied children, 124 runners.

Chard Road Runners had five runners taking part in the 10k, plus Anna Drew helping with marshalling duties.

Claire Pomeroy led the way at the start at a great pace that suited her love of this terrain, but the predicted order was soon established by the first climb, with Gavin Wyatt leading the way, followed by Paul Fraser, Simon Hall, Julie Bindon and Claire Pomeroy.

With the recent dry weather the off road sections were for the most part dry, with the exception of a few very muddy gateways that had a definite rural ingredient. The route for this Scamper takes runners through some delightful parts running alongside streams, and a climb to spectacular views a couple of miles from the finish.

Gavin finished in a sharp 53.06 in 17th place. Paul still had plenty of fitness from his recent long distance events and came in 1:00.49 in 33rd.

Next off the Starting block was the Taunton 10k where four CRRs took to this road run around the streets of Taunton, with Colin Boarder getting CRRs off to a fine start and the weather – whilst on the hot side – was making for a very fast race.

Maintaining good pace was Mel Boarder who was starting to make good progress through this full field of runners drawing Vicky Musselwhite along with her, Gary Wheaton set off for the chase to round off CRR's challenge, with the end in sight it was Colin who pushed hard to cross the line in 52min and a PB, next securing a PB was Mel in 1hr 1min with Vicky Crossing at the same time securing her PB for a 10k, Gary getting back into the stride finished off the CRR's race entry.

With North Devon being the CRRs next trip to the races, it was the Barnstaple Marathon and Half Marathon that attracted the them with Helen Baxter taking on the half marathon having recently suffered illness.

Helen made a strong finish into the welcoming finish area in a time of 2hr 13min 52sec. Andy Mear just pipped Addie Douglass to the line – a fantastic run.
